Applying of Government Activities in Conduct of War by Any Means Is Federal Theory

Frank C. Dailey, One of Nation's Chief Criminal Chasers, Put at Head of Work

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1—Secret disclosures made to officials here in connection with the seizure of W W documents throughout the country indicate, it was said today, that there has existed for some time a nationwide conspiracy to hamper government in almost every conceivable way available to it in opposition to the draft law burning crops, some of the so-called labor disturbances, and attempts to curtail production in war industries, reports thought to be the crippling of ens of thousands of letters, books and other documents in the possession of federal authorities will be placed before the grand jury at Chicago or other grand juries which are being investigated ramifications of the alleged conspiracy.

It was intimated today that the government's theory is that the alleged conspiracy was fostered in Chicago though its operations extended virtually every section of the United States.

In the light of reports made recently to officials here, the numerous instances of opposition at widely scat-

Burning of wheat fields and attempts to burn spruce forests in the Pacific Northwest it was thought were conspiracy directed by the controlling heads. Dozens of sporadic attempts to cripple war industries by sabotage and acts of violence were rewarded as a third phase of the general conspiracy. Publication of articles designed to create anti-war sentiment, anti-ally sentiment, was a fourth phase, it is thought, of the same general movement.

GERMANS DROP BOMBS ON WOUNDED; AMERICAN IS SLAIN

AMERICAN HOSPITAL IS BOMBARDED

BULLETIN.
WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN THE FIELD. Sept. 7.—An American officer was killed and five members of his staff wounded in a deliberate bombardment Tuesday by German aircraft of an American hospital on the French coast.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—Germany apparently is conducting an aerial campaign against allied hospitals. The bitter indignation has been aroused throughout England by reports of the past week showing half a dozen instances in which hospitals, plainly marked, have been singled out for attack. England's reprisals will be in aerial attacks against German military works.

A typical instance of the new form of German frightfulness was reported in United Press despatches today from the French front. German aviators dropped bombs every twenty minutes during several hours of daylight on a hospital at Vandelaucourt. Nineteen persons were killed and twenty-six wounded.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Informed by the United Press of the death of an American officer in the American field hospital, the war department immediately sent a request to headquarters in France for detailed information. No official report had come from General Pershing.

The American officer killed was an

AMERICA GLAD WITH FRANCE FOR VICTORY

PARIS, Thursday, Sept. 6.—In connection with the celebration of the anniversary of the battle of the Marne the newspapers today print several messages to the French people from prominent Americans. Secretary Daniels cabled to the Matin.

"There are through history a small number of peaks which become lighthouses ever illumined for lovers of liberty. Bunker Hill is an American name symbolizing resistance to a superior enemy. The battle of the Marne saved Paris, checking the invading flow of Prussianism. Marshal Joffre and the heroes who faced the invaders not only saved the capital and their country, but prevented Prussian militarism from submerging the whole world."

The secretary said the United States would celebrate the anniversary of this battle as it observes Independence Day, adding: "Liberty and Marne are words today and forever inseparable." Secretary Baker sent the following:

"Liberty is not yet assured in the world. Many of its fruits remain to be gathered. But this has been gained once and for all by the battle of the Marne—that the twentieth century will not be an age of blood and iron, but an era of more generous relations among the members of the human family."

American medical corps man attached to the Harvard unit.

Three members of this officer's staff were severely wounded.

One man in the hospital served by a St. Louis unit was wounded. Of the sixteen wounded at the Harvard unit's hospital five were members of the American staff and ten were patients.

'DICTATOR' IN U. S., CHARGE OF GERMANS

By John Grandens, United Press Staff Correspondent.

BERLIN (via London), Sept. 7.—Demand that the "American people secure constitutional guarantees, so that in the future their president will be unable to rule as an autocrat dictator," was voiced in the Lokai Anzeiger today. The newspaper asserted this was in reality the request voiced both by Pope Benedict and the Reichstag.

The Lokai Anzeiger's editorial was impelled by receipt of despatches from America quoting the State Department as declaring the United States would not necessarily require destruction of the Hohenzollern dynasty as a prerequisite of peace.

Several newspapers today commented at length on despatches from Petrograd recently printed in Allied newspapers revealing secret correspondence exchanged between Kaiser Wilhelm in 1914 and later.

The Vossische Zeitung admitted the authenticity of this correspondence today and declared the Kaiser's stand therein was justified owing to British intrigues.

"The Kaiser's purpose," the editorial asserted, "was merely to frustrate these and he acted only after consultation with the chancellor and the foreign minister."

The Lokai Anzeiger asserted the correspondence merely gave evidence of the Kaiser's endeavors to circumvent England's hostile plans. A Russo-German treaty proposed in the letters, and telegrams, it was declared, would have insured peace.

The correspondence referred to is being printed by the New York Herald in a series of copyrighted despatches from Herman Bernstein, formerly editor of the New York Jewish newspaper, The Day, and now in Russia. It was stated by Bernstein that the correspondence was obtained from the Russian secret archives. It included a long list of telegrams and letters signed sometimes "Willy" and "Nicky," through which the Kaiser was shown to have attempted poisoning of the czar's mind against England and France—Russia's allies—and to have schemed for a secret Russo-German agreement.

activities through a large number of lieutenants.

Department of justice officials said today that the investigation probably would be prolonged. United States Attorney Cline is to be assisted by Frank C. Bailey of Indianapolis and Frank K. Neuberger of Salt Lake City, and the entire investigation will be conducted under the personal supervision of William C. Pitts, assistant attorney-general, under whose direction the search of I. W. W. documents was made. Pitts will make daily reports to Attorney-General Gregory.

Where the money came from to finance the manifold activities of the movement under investigation was subject into which the grand jury will delve deeply. Many developments, it is said, point to a German fund from which money was lavishly supplied for work of the alleged conspirators. Heretofore no connection between German funds and activities of persons apparently hostile to the government had not been established.

STRIKES EXPLAINED BY CONDITIONS, HE SHOWS

Marion J. Noble, secretary of the local branch of the I. W. W., today gave out a brief statement of the attitude of local members from their headquarters, 506 Webster street, today. The place was raided Tuesday by the government agents and sixty pounds of alleged contraband literature and documents gathered in, Noble said.

"There was not much for the government to carry away in the raid, as most of it was destroyed in the raid of August 10, when the soldiers burned most of our papers."

"We cannot be blamed for the strikes that have occurred all over the country. The strikes have occurred because the time was opportune and the high cost of living made it necessary. The sawdust in ammunition which went to France was not our work, either. Furthermore, our purposes are peaceful. We do not countenance violence. We win by folded arms and not by imported gunmen. The importation of gunmen is always the cause of violence, as in the United Railroad situation in San Francisco."

"We have not been taken into federal custody yet. We hope we are not to be. We have done nothing against the laws of the United States except strive for our principles along scientific lines. We always use the tactics that will suit the locality."

SALOONS RAIDED

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—United States deputy marshals and members of the moral squad raided down town hotels and restaurants and arrested eight hotel clerks and saloon-keepers last night on charges of selling liquor to soldiers. Thomas Miles and Harry Granger, of the Shasta Hotel, Louis Cochrane, of the St. Paul Hotel, Leo Wing and William Smith of a saloon at 230 Market street, and other bartenders and clerks were in the list of men held. They are held for United States Commissioner Francis Knell.

Vote of Canadian Objectors to Go to Women Instead

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 7.—Conscientious objectors and citizens of alien enemy birth are made "men without a country" by the new franchise bill, which is before the House of Commons today.

While disfranchising these classes of men, the bill gives the vote to 400,000 mothers, wives, widows, daughters and sisters of Canadian soldiers in foreign service.

It is estimated 50,000 men will be deprived of their citizenship if the bill becomes a law. They include enemy aliens who have become naturalized citizens since March 31, 1902, conscientious objectors and members of sects who refuse war service on religious grounds.

PLAN WILL INSURE EQUALITY AND JUSTICE

Local board members are watching with great interest the outcome of these test cases, as they are anxious to learn whether the law will be uniformly increased through the government appeals. Members stated yesterday that they approved of the system of appeals in that it would tend to produce uniformity of action among the local boards. Some boards have been very lenient in the matter of exemption on grounds of dependence, while others have been rather strict. In these districts which have showed leniency the government will probably turn down a large number of discharges, thus insuring that all men will be treated exactly alike.

ARE GIVEN SCARE

Quite a scare was received by local board members this morning when a communication was received from the chief disbursing officer stating that no per diem allowances for members of local or district boards could be allowed.

"It looks as though we were not going to receive any pay after all," one member sorrowfully remarked.

A careful reading of the communication, which was even more abstruse than these communications usually are, failed to reveal a glimmer of hope for the hard-worked exemption board members. The letter stated explicitly that "no per diem allowance shall be paid to any member or employee," and then referred to a section in the rules and regulations.

Upon comparing the letter with this section it appeared that the communication referred to the traveling expenses of board members, although it was far from clear, even then.

J. E. Greenan, a member of Board No. 4, said that it was better to read the confusing communications, not to adhere too strictly to the text. "Glance it over and make a guess, and you'll find it closer than if you follow it word for word," Greenan said. This is what the board members are going to do and trust to Providence that their checks will come through in time to buy Christmas presents.

District No. 3 examined eighty men in supplementary call this morning and got much better results than in the first call, so far as claims for

CAMOUFLAGE TO BE TAUGHT IN NEW ARMY

CAMP LEWIS, TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 7.—Camouflage, the French art of making things which are, seem what they are not, will be taught at Camp Lewis.

In the ranks of the 46,000 men who will be stationed here there will doubtless be many artists and landscape gardeners, and it is to these men whose natural abilities need only to be developed that camouflage instruction will be given.

As near as possible the trenches of European battlefields will be reproduced on the prairies of the reservation, and the new army given intensive training in the sort of warfare now in vogue overseas. When the camouflage squads have done their work, keen eyed aerial observers, if they were to fly over Camp Lewis, would not be able to distinguish to map the trench systems nor detect the hiding places of big guns in the rear. Moving troops and supply trains behind the lines would be made all but invisible to inquisitive enemy air scouts.

The topography of the country surrounding this post is declared to be ideal for the practice of the latest art of war.

FIELD ARTILLERY SCARCE

Scarcity of both light and heavy field artillery in the United States army and the necessity for keeping this branch of the service on a par with the infantry units being sent to France has led to the decision by the war department, it was learned today, to convert most of the coast artillery on the Pacific coast into field artillery.

Fifteen hundred members of the national army who will report at Camp Lewis will it is said, be trained at the forts on Puget sound, displacing an equal number of regulars and national guardsmen, who will be transferred to this camp for intensive training in handling field artillery.

HEMPSTEAD, N. Y., Sept. 7.—California's contribution to the Rainbow division marched into Camp Mills today, the 11th regiment of engineers. With the arrival of Iowa's contingents the division will be nearly complete.

Preparations have been made at the camp for handling 10,000 more men, making the capacity of the reservation 25,000 men.

CAMP LEWIS READY

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 7.—Between 1500 and 200 drafted men will arrive at Camp Lewis today and tomorrow. By Sunday night the full complement of 46,000 men will be here.

They will come from Utah, Nevada, Wyoming, Idaho, Montana, Alaska, California, Oregon and Washington.

Three hundred and twenty-five men, yesterday's and Wednesday's arrivals, were at Camp Lewis late yesterday afternoon. More were expected up till midnight. Two hundred and twenty arrived yesterday. The total number of new men at camp since the arrival of honor men Wednesday, including 246 non-commissioned officers from the Vancouver barracks and the Oregon hospital unit of 122 men, is 693.

Preparations were made by Captain C. B. Lewis, O. C., yesterday to receive 247 men from San Francisco, who are expected today or tomorrow. With the 240 drafted men and the hospital unit and non-commissioned officers there will be 2769 men of the new national army at Camp Lewis by Saturday night of Sunday.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 7.—One hundred and fifty strong, Los Angeles' first 5 per cent of her quota of "liberty boys" are well on their way to the cantonment today. Amid pathos and patriotism, surrounded by loyalty and love, they were despatched last night on the first lap of what they say will be a journey to "Germany or bust!"

exemption are concerned. Of the first seven men examined five passed the physical examination and did not claim exemption. When it is considered that this district did not get five men out of the first hundred examined in the original call, the record is considered exceptionally good.

The following men have been certified to the district board from Local Board No. 3 as physically qualified for military service, their claims for exemption having been denied: William A. Glenn, Thomas E. McLaen, R. G. Atkinson, Harry C. Noe, Carl E. Lagerquist, Robert Bruce Blair, Walter A. Dewey, Frank C. Kispert, T. P. Donnelly, Noble H. Wills, William E. Freeman, Lloyd C. Russell.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The house, speeding up after months of "waiting for the senate," today took up the soldiers' and sailors' insurance bill.

The measure is not scheduled for easy going in the lower branch. Members of both big parties are avowedly against it. They do not regard the bill as a war necessity. Representative Parker of New Jersey has filed a minority report opposing the measure, and other members of the house interstate commerce committee say they have never stood back of the measure, but did not oppose it in committee, as they believed it would be useless. It is practically assured that the bill will pass, as the president is behind it and has urged its enactment into law.

CONFERENCES TO OUTLINE PLANS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Such agreements for closer co-operation in war activities as may be entered into between Viscount Ishii, head of the Japanese Mission and Secretary Lansing will be based largely upon the conferences between Vice-Admiral Takekita and American naval officers. It was indicated at the State Department today that the outstanding points had to do with transportation and it was stated that to determine questions connected with that problem, the Japanese naval representatives would confer with experts of the navy department.

FILM MAGNATES FIGHT AND FALL; NO CAMERA NEAR

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Herbert Brenon and William A. Brady, prominent picture producers, are nursing bumps and bruises today as a result of an unflinching sketch. Reserving the principal roles for themselves, they staged a battle scene at the Ritz-Carlton last night. No camera recorded the conflict, but onlookers declared it was a great fight while it lasted, the pair doing a perfect fall down a pair of steps while punning one another. Brady appeared uninvited at a private showing conducted by Brenon. Brenon charges Brady with imitating his film.

U. S. TROOPS ARE HONORED BY POINCARÉ

FIELD HEADQUARTERS OF THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, Sept. 6 (Delayed in transmission).—Impressive scenes and stirring utterances marked the review of American troops today by President Poincaré of France. President Poincaré and his colleagues chose the anniversary of the battle of the Marne and the birth of Lafayette to honor the American soldiers with their presence. President Poincaré was accompanied by General Painleve and General Petain, the French commander-in-chief. They were met by General John J. Pershing, the commander of the American forces, and General William L. Sibert, second in command of the Americans, while a large group of French people, gathered from nearby villages, gathered around cheering lustily.

When the French executive met the American commander there was a hearty handclasp.

Afterward the president motored through the village with M. Painleve, General Petain and General Pershing. Everywhere the American and French flags were flying and there was a continuous burst of cheering from the villagers who lined the streets. At times the French president went to their enthusiasm by tossing their hats in the air or waving handkerchiefs while they cheered.

The helmeted United States troops were drawn up on a plateau.

President Poincaré, General Pershing and the balance of their party were grouped for moving pictures before the ceremonies began so that the historic event might be actually seen by the eyes of future generations.

PERSHING, POINCARÉ SPEAK.

The eyes of the French president glowed with enthusiasm as he would point with his stick to some particular regiment or to some maneuver or equipment that particularly struck his interest. At the conclusion of the review General Pershing turned to the officers grouped near him and addressed them, saying:

"Gentlemen, we have been paid a great honor today by this visit of the president of France. It happens also that this is the anniversary of the battle of the Marne. It will go down in history as one of the greatest days and it is a fitting day that this army should be thus honored. We all may well feel more patriotic for it and more fitted for the task cut out for the great army whereof this is the advance guard."

President Poincaré spoke with great feeling, using French:

"I am very happy to be able to bring to you the congratulations of the republic to this very fine army, commanded by General Pershing, which I have just seen fighting before me in such magnificent fashion," he said. "I cannot help but feel great emotion at seeing so many brave officers and soldiers who braved the dangers of the sea to come to French soil to defend the common cause of the allies."

FOR SAME CAUSE.

President Wilson said the other day that we are all fighting for the same cause and interests and that the freedom of the United States is at stake everywhere the allied armies fight, whether it be in Flanders or on the Isonzo.

"Today in the great cities of America is being celebrated the birthday of General Lafayette. Yesterday in commemoration of this anniversary the president of the municipal council of Paris gave into my hands an American flag of primitive design, with thirteen stars, which has been presented by the mayor of Philadelphia. Today I am going to visit the tombs of the heroes of the battle of the Marne, the men who fell in that army which was the advance guard of the great armies now fighting for the right of civilization. Thus two countries are celebrating two common anniversaries which draw them closer together than ever in the great struggle in which we are engaged."

"Long live the United States!"

At the conclusion of M. Poincaré's speech the United States troops gave three cheers and a tiger, their voices booming in good American fashion.

At the conclusion of these ceremonies President Poincaré and his party inspected the barracks and expressed admiration over the manner of quartering the Americans. Also the houses in which American troops are billeted were visited.

BREWERS WOULD OUST CABARETS AND DANCING

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—The Chicago Brewers' Association, the Chicago Retail Liquor Dealers' Association and other kindred organizations made known today that they will soon begin an active campaign to prohibit dancing, skating and vaudeville entertainment in any Chicago cafe where liquor is sold.

The move will take the form of an ordinance, it is said. The only form of amusement favored under the liquor dealers' plan is band concerts in places which seat 500 persons or more.

"We have had our own men investigating cabarets and dance halls in this city," asserted William Tegner, president of the Brewers' Association, and we have decided to 'clean house'.

The abuse of license and privilege demands a separation of the sale of liquor and amusements such as are now prevalent in cafes. Ninety-five per cent of the men in the saloon business in the city are supporting the move."

weapon in her hand. As she came forward to intervene between her and her victim, but she pointed the revolver at him and held him at bay. Then she suddenly turned the weapon again upon Williams and fired a second shot, which also severed his left side this time above the heart.

Dropping the revolver, she took from her handbag a glass tumbler and a small vial of chloroform, poured the contents of the bottle into the glass and drank it down. The poison was slow in taking effect and when the police arrived she was not yet under its influence.

Williams was rushed to the Emergency hospital in the police ambulance. Mrs. Vickery was taken to the hospital by Inspectors William R. Kyle and Eddie Wallman that she might be identified by the dying man. Confronted with her victim as he lay gasping on the operating table, she exclaimed:

"Yes, I shot him. I hope you die. I hope you die."

It was not until Mrs. Vickery had been taken back to the city hall in order that a more complete statement might be obtained by the police that she collapsed under the effect of the chloroform. She was then removed to the hospital and placed under oxygen treatment.

Williams died at 8:30 without making a statement to the police.

Williams, who was about 45 years of age, had been employed by Varney as an extra man during the last ten days. Before that he was in the employ of the Hippodrome theater. He resided at Eleventh and Harrison streets and was divorced.

F. W. BAKER DIES

Frank W. Baker, for 35 years an Oakland resident and business man, died early this morning, following one of a number of heart attacks to which he had been subject. He is survived by a bride of two months, Mrs. Anna M. Baker. As a staid business man he was known throughout the Oakland of a generation back, before extensive use of automobiles began. A native of New York, he came here as a young man and had resided here ever since.

Complete funeral arrangements have not as yet been made. The widow and two brothers of the dead man reside. It is thought, though, that the funeral will be held Monday, services being conducted at the Henderson chapel, 2307 Telegraph avenue. Baker was 53 years old.

PLAN NEW UNIT

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—The first unit of the ambulance field service which was sent to France under the direction of Clifton Le Montagne has been received with such enthusiastic approval that a second section has been called for. It is now being recruited at room 204 Hearst building. It is proposed to send this unit over about October 1.

TO RUN FACTORIES

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 7.—After a meeting of the cabinet orders were sent to the governors of all states to the effect that many industries, including cotton factories, must be regarded in the light of public utilities. Should the proprietors close these factories, the government, in case of a refusal to reopen, will take over and operate them.

NOT IN POLITICS

Editor THE TRIBUNE: I wish to state emphatically to the public that the Elmhurst Mothers' Club and Parent-Teachers' Association is in no way connected with any political body. We are strictly non-political, non-sectarian. We are a club, whose object is for the welfare of the child and school.

WOMEN! IT'S CHEAP!
USE LEMON JUICE TO MAKE BEAUTY LOTION

In all weathers the skin and complexion can be kept wonderfully clear, soft and white by the use of this inexpensive lemon lotion which any girl or woman can easily prepare.

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold cream. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothening and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion. It naturally should help to soften, freshen, bleach and bring out the roses and hidden beauty of any skin. Those who will make it a habit to gently massage this lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands once or twice daily may be repaid with a skin that is flexible and young looking and a peach-like complexion—advertisement.

SALMON PACKING FALLS BELOW MARK

Salmon packing fell below the mark of last year in Alaskan waters, according to figures received here from Bristol Bay, Alaska, with the arrival of F. A. Daly, manager of the Alaska Portland Packing company, who came from the north on the steamer Akutan.

The 1917 pack, according to Daly, was 455,000 cases, or 45,000 cases lower than the 1916 record. Of this year's catch the red fish ran higher than last year, the present catch being 80 per cent pink salmon as against only 50 per cent for last year.

The general working record was not consistent, Kogitug, Ugashik and Igaklik running full packs, Naknek running ten per cent below standard amounts and Port Moller being almost an entire failure.

Stormy weather is blamed by the fishermen for much of the uncertainty of the present catch. This was especially true on the Nushagak river, where considerable fishing gear, comprising nets and lines, was destroyed during the season. Up to July 5 the regular fish shoals had not appeared, but in the two weeks following, according to Daly, the canneries were packed to capacity.

The packing in northern waters ran as follows for the season: Alaska Packers' Association, 170,000 cases, Alaska Portland Packing company, 86,000 cases, Columbia River Packers' Association, 88,000 cases, Libby, McNeill and Libby, 65,000 cases, Alaska Salmon Company, 33,000; Northwestern Fisheries Company, 33,000 cases.

WILL AUCTION ART

Plans for the Auction Comique to be held under the auspices of the Oakland Art Association, Friday evening, September 28, in the rotunda of the Oakland City Hall, for the benefit of the American Red Cross society, were discussed last night by the committee of arrangements at a meeting held in the Oakland Art gallery. Those present last evening, together with several others to be appointed later, will be chosen to form the executive committee, at the next meeting, Tuesday evening, September 11. They include Dr. Herbert J. Samuels, J. W. Bartholme, Dr. A. S. Larkey, Carl Bachelder, Finn Frolich, art curator, and Miss Annie Florence Brown, Miss Guinevere Rix, Mrs. A. S. Larkey, Mrs.

MRS. HAYDEN IS GIVEN HER MUSIC AT LAST

The "Call to Arms," a militant song by Mrs. Urban Elaine Hayden, Oakland composer, written to aid the mess fund of Battery B and brought Wesley Webster, a printer, 1825 Steiner street, San Francisco, to the police court, is now a peace pean, as far as its natal efforts are concerned. For yesterday Webster returned 1000 copies of the song which he was alleged to be holding, and the incident was closed.

Webster was arrested at Mrs. Hayden's instance when he held the music and demanded $5 for overwriting alleged to be due Police Judge Fitzpatrick, before whom the case came up, decided that Mrs. Hayden was entitled to have her music and suggested that Webster show some patriotism by donating the $5 under discussion to Battery B. Webster, inspired by the patriotic sentiments of the song, agreed. It also turned over the original plates from which the song was printed.

LEAGUE CADETS TO BE HONORED

Members of Company E, League of the Cross Cadets, who have joined the California Grizzlies, will be honored at a third anniversary celebration and ladies' night to be held by Company E at Knights of Columbus Hall, 660 Thirteenth street, this evening. An individual competitive display among members of Company E for a medal donated by Captain E. T. Martin will be a feature of the program. The affair is invitational.

Company E has sent its members into all branches of the army and navy, and several have found their way into the famous Canadian regiment, the Princess Pats, and the French Foreign Legion Company, 106, Los Angeles, 1st Regular California Field Artillery, 128, Presidio; 24 Regular California Field Artillery, 280, Tanforan, 1st and 2nd California Ambulance, 89, Arcadia, 1st California Field Hospital, 5, Arcadia, California. Engineers, 10, Arcadia.

In almost every instance men will be accepted for any company in these regiments.

EMBELLISHED, MEN OF SEA ARE HOME

Not since this time last year has there been seen on the water front such an array of belted shirts and starched collars, ready made suits by the hundred and brand new shoes with a creak heard block away. For the Alaska packing men numbering 400 are home from the north and are enduring their semi-annual "dollar-up." Their first thought upon their disembarking from the six Alaska vessels in Oakland estuary, was to acquire a city bred appearance by the purchase of a full rigout of city clothes. This they achieved except for a sea roll in their walk, wind and sun tanned faces and a general appearance of discomfort in their unwelcome finery.

These highly embellished crews, paid off from their ships, have imparted a legal holiday atmosphere to the water front, the more so since they spend freely in treating their beach comber friends.

Long before the new suits grow old and tarnished, within ten days in fact, they will be discarded without a tinge of regret by their wearers who will leave for a trans-Pacific voyage, returning here in time to go to Alaska again next spring. But the beach combers won't have a chance to feel lonesome for on almost every day until the end of this month, another vessel will arrive in port from Alaska, with its crew longing as only sailors can long to sport a belted shirt for a brief period along Broadway and to greet old comrades with a "Hello, You!"

GUARD VACANCIES

Recruiting officers in Oakland for the National Guard in Federal service have been furnished with the following list of vacancies in the names of the mobilization camps of the different regiments: Second California, 685, Presidio; 8th California, 1145, Presidio, 7th California, 790, Arcadia, California. Coast Artillery, 8th and 8th Companies, 67, San Diego, 13th, 14th, 15th and 16th Companies, 106, Los Angeles, 1st Regular California Field Artillery, 128, Presidio; 24 Regular California Field Artillery, 280, Tanforan, 1st and 2nd California Ambulance, 89, Arcadia, 1st California Field Hospital, 5, Arcadia, California. Engineers, 10, Arcadia.

In almost every instance men will be accepted for any company in these regiments.

SUMMER COMPLAINT.
During the hot weather of the summer months some member of almost every family is likely to be troubled with an unnatural looseness of the bowels, and it is of the greatest importance that this be treated promptly, which can only be done when the medicine is kept on hand. Mrs. F. F. Scott, Scottville, N. Y., states, "I first used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy as much as five years ago. At that time I had a severe attack of summer complaint and was suffering intense pain. One dose relieved me. Other members of my family have since used it with like results. I do so by Osgood Bros. drug store."—Advertisement.

FRENCHMEN ARE GUESTS AT AFFAIRS

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—Cheering receptions were given the five members of the French high commission to the United States here today by the students of four high schools. Each of the war heroes composing the visiting delegation of the commission here visited a high school, making an appealing address of patriotism to the youth of the city.

The members of the commission were the guests at luncheon today of the San Francisco center of the California Civic League.

This evening the commission will be honored at a reception given by organized labor of San Francisco, through the labor council.

The Commonwealth club luncheon tomorrow will be a special occasion to honor the members of the French high commission who are now visiting San Francisco. The commission has come to this coast primarily to take part in the dedication of the library of French thought at the University of California on Lafayette day, but it is charged with the general mission of furthering the good understanding between the French and American peoples. The distinguished guests are expected to say a few words regarding their personal experience in the war, in which all of them have been actively engaged.

DISTINGUISHED GUESTS.
The guests are the following: Deputy High Commissioner Lieutenant Colonel Edouard de Billy of Paris, late organizer of the inter-allied bureau of munitions.

Colonel James Martin of the 412th regiment of the French army.
Captain E. J. Rouvier.
Lieutenant Henri le Compeau.
Commandant Montfort de Courtyron.
Lieutenant E. Limousin.

BERKELEY AFFAIR.
BERKELEY, Sept. 7.—A renewed confidence in the idea that bind America and France, punctuated with unrestricted patriotism was expressed yesterday afternoon by French government, officials and university savants in the dedication exercises at the University of California of the new library of French thought. The dedication of the library, of several thousand volumes, representing the flower of French achievement in literature, science, philosophy and art, was appropriately arranged to occur on the anniversary of the birth of Marquis de Lafayette, and on the anniversary of the famous battle of the Marne.

The dedication was effected yesterday by Deputy High Commissioner Edouard de Billy of the French mission to the United States. M. de Billy came from Washington, D. C., to dedicate the library, and with him came three other officers of the French army—Colonel James Martin, Captain E. J. Rouvier and Lieutenant Henri le Compeau Crequy Montfort de Courtyron.

President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the university made a speech of formal acceptance of the gift. Other speakers were: Bruce Porter, founder of the Friends of France; Professor Charles Mills Gayley; Professor Henry Morris Stephens; Professor Gilbert N. Chinnard and Librarian J. C. Rowell.

M. de Billy spoke last.

URGES CLOSER RELATIONS.
"It has been said a while ago," remarked M. de Billy, "that America had much to learn from France. But at the same time let us not only speak of what others have to learn from us. Let me emphasize all that we have to learn from the United States, and all that we will more and more have to learn from the United States. Even in the first years of the life of your republic, when all the energies of your fathers were devoted to opening the land, to creating this country, to building railroads, to building these beautiful cities and to making the country habitable for all the people who from all parts of the world came here to become American citizens, what a contribution did the American mind give to literature and to science!"

There must be an intercourse between our nations. There must be an intercourse among all friendly nations. A friend of mine wrote in a French periodical, a little more than a year ago, a paper entitled 'The Intellectual Relations Between England and France,' and pointed out how, although England and France were so neighborly, they had been during the whole nineteenth century in nearly total ignorance in each country of what was going on in the intellectual life of the other country."

NO COMPENSATION

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—A divorced woman who has minor children dependent on her cannot get compensation under the state laws if, when the divorce decree is granted, the court does not grant her alimony or provide for the support of the children.

Applying this principle, stated yesterday by the state accident commission, Mrs. Belle Browning of North Yakima, Wash., was refused compensation for her minor children on account of the death of her former husband, Fred Browning, who was killed in an elevator accident at the slaughter house of Swanston & Son at Sacramento, April 6. The Browning's were divorced July 1, 1914, and since then Mrs. Browning has had to support six daughters, all minors.

OLD SOLDIER HURT

Slipping on the pavement at Broadway and Seventh street, James Brown, 75 years old, a resident at the Old Soldiers' Home, Yountville, fell prostrate last night and suffered painful scalp injuries when his head came in contact with the sidewalk. Taken to the Emergency Hospital, it required several stitches to close a laceration over the right eye, besides additional treatment for other wounds.

EXPLAINS RULE ON FISH SALES

No drastic measures will be taken at first to compel fish dealers in this city to adopt the prices fixed by State Market Director Weinstein. No effort will be made by Weinstein to extend the fish sale today, since there is always a large demand on Friday. Special sales will probably be arranged for tomorrow.

In explaining the intentions of the promoters of the fish campaign, E. A. Forbes of the state market director's office said: "There is no desire to wreck hardship or to cause resentment or lack of co-operation. The law is plain. The fish dealers need thoroughly to understand the plan. It is to sell more fish at reasonable prices and to have fish sold more generally throughout the week. That will mean better business for them and cheaper fish for everybody. Where we get complaints against dealers we will try to iron out the cause."

Forbes stated that dealers had reported that their sales had increased considerably since the fish campaign was started.

Battery E Pleases Inspector Drill Training Is Thorough

By Sergeant Jack Cook, Battery E, First Cal. F. A.

MOBILIZATION CAMP, Arcadia, Sept. 7.—Battery E underwent inspection by Brigadier General Jones, commanding officer of the artillery forces to be trained at Arcadia, this morning, and despite considerable natural nervousness, came through the ordeal in excellent shape.

The inspection was thorough and complete and included a close scrutiny of each man, and in many cases several questions were asked as to previous service. While no official report of the results of the inspection have been received it is known that Battery E made a most favorable impression.

During the coming four months the battery will be put through an intensive course of training, more severe than ever been attempted for this branch of the service. The task that confronts the battery is a hard one, but there is no doubt that it will be accomplished in first class shape. At the end of the training period Battery E mobilized on August 5, will qualify as a first class battery and will have mastered the intricate fire control necessary for effective work in the field.

MASTER SIGNALS.
While the mounted and gun drills are more or less retarded through lack of material, in the present camp, the men of the organization have mastered the arm signals and commands necessary for mounted drill and have been thoroughly drilled in the gun squad work so that by the time Linda Vista is reached and real guns and horses obtained, the men will be thoroughly familiar with their duties.

Inspector Jack Carter of the Oakland Police Department visited Captain Walter J. Petersen at the mobilization camp this afternoon and incidentally found time to chat for a few moments with the former members of the newspaper fraternity who up to a month ago, haunted the Central office and harried the men upstairs and down for "copy."

Three of the sergeants of the battery came in for a great "streak of luck" last evening. Sergeant Fulweiler, Sergeant "Bob" Barnes and the writer visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Carter in the town of Arcadia, and were treated to the first real "home dinner" that has been encountered since leaving Oakland.

Top Sergeant Muhm celebrated his birthday today by drinking the usual eight hours then spending an extra evening in office work.

"AU REVOIR, VIC,"
The battery received a bit of bad news this evening when it was learned that the present, at least, "Victory" the China Chow dog that is the mascot of the organization would have to be dis-

NEW SHIPS TO PLY ON PACIFIC

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—Seven Japanese shipping magnates, each of whom has made millions in the spectacular rise of Japanese shipping, have combined to form a $20,000,000 corporation to ply steamers between the Orient and San Francisco. Six of the company's steamers have already left Japan for San Francisco.

The president of the company, Teiji Ishida, arrived here yesterday on the Tenyo Maru to establish a local agency.

Ishida intimated that the company had been formed at the suggestion of Washington and Downing street. Representations had been made to him that the Japanese must do their utmost at this time to help out the United States in trans-Pacific transportation. Cargo rates will be regulated in accordance with an arrangement with Washington.

The name of the new Japanese corporation is the Ocean Transport Co. The local agency is the Trans-Pacific Company, of which Dredg Childers, formerly with Dowdell & Co., is president.

Among the other six Japanese millionaires who form the directorate of the Japanese company is Chozo Ito, who, five years ago, was a mechanic in the Tokyo yards of the Tokyo Ship Construction Company. Now he is rated as the richest man in Japan.

The company was formed last January, and correspondence has been passing between Kobe, the headquarters of the company, and San Francisco for some time.

Ishida said that everything is arranged for six large freighters, which have already left Japan, to maintain a regular run between the Orient and the Pacific coast and that six 10,000-ton freighters are now being built for the company and will be on the run beginning next January, at the rate of two a month.

Ishida also said that he is arranging to make Manila a port of call and so relieve the great freight congestion of hemp, copra, rice and other products needed in this country for the war.

pened with as the medical officer will not allow dogs in the camp in the future. Until the battery moves south Lieutenant Perkins has consented to give the dog a refuge in his home in Los Angeles.

"Vic" has become an institution in the camp through her fondness for drill. Whenever the battery is drilling "Vic" holds a post about two paces in the lead of the front rank and in case the battery is holding gun drill she hunts about until she encounters another battery or company of infantry at drill and transfers temporarily to that organization.

The mess fund of Battery E of Los Angeles was increased by a gift of $500 from a resident of Los Angeles this week, and a complete set of sporting goods, including two sets of boxing gloves, two dozen base balls, several catchers' mitts and four bats were also received.

POOL TO SPEAK.
Taking for his subject the "Diplomatic Background of the Present World War," Rev. W. C. Pool, faculty member of Harvard and Boston University, will speak tonight at First Methodist Church, Twenty-fourth street and Broadway, under the auspices of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. The lecture begins at 8 o'clock. No door fee will be made.

SAVED BY DREAM.
Fred Graham will turn the gas lever all the way around in the future. He turned it three-quarters of the way last night and went to sleep. Awakened by a dream, he found that he was being slowly strangled by gas fumes. Giving the alarm in the house at 738 Sixteenth street where he rooms, he was sent to the Emergency Hospital and revived.

CHARGE CRUELTY

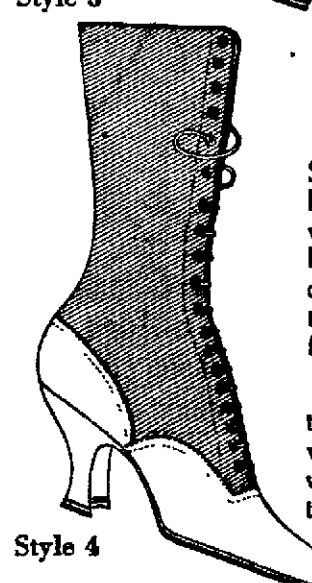

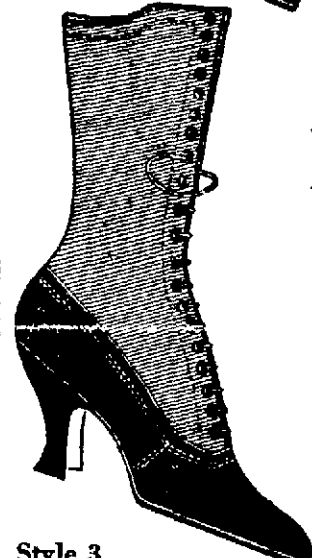

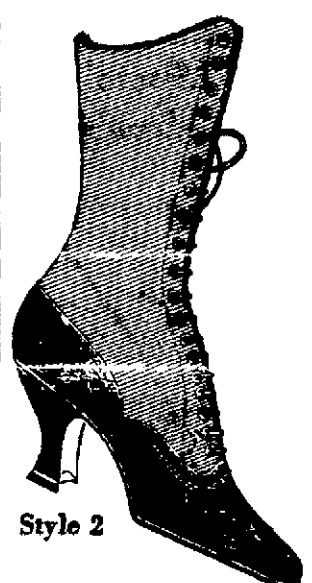

Leslie Lange has filed divorce suit against her husband, H. W. Lange, charging cruelty. She alleges that to annoy her he hanged himself to a rafter and that she had to cut him down. He wanted their 13-year-old daughter put to work. She asks for $35 a month and an order restraining him from disposing of $1200 in the bank.

Bell Ryer charges her husband, Harold Ryer, with cruelty in a divorce action filed today. He is employed at the Union Iron works. Irma Boyd Russell has applied for annulment of her marriage to Wayne W. Russell. The marriage took place in 1915, when she was 17, without her parents' consent.

PEACE PACT ENDS FEUD OF TONG MEN

Seven Chinese tongs today signed a permanent peace pact in San Francisco. Heads of the Hop Sing, Sui Sing, Wing Kong, Bow Leong, Hip Sing, Sing Wing and Sui Wing tongs signed the pact in the grand jury chambers. This is expected to end the tong feud which has resulted in numerous battles in various Pacific Coast cities during the past six months.

A temporary truce was signed ten days ago.

Thirty Chinese were killed and a number wounded in the six months' fighting between these tongs.

Discrimination in Shipments? Grande Asks For Retaliation

Charging that discrimination against Oakland business and commission men by the City of San Francisco, the Southern Pacific Company and the Wells Fargo Express Company are largely contributing toward the increased cost of living on this side of the bay, J. H. Grande, local commission man, appealed to the council today to take some steps in retaliation, or to force a remedy through the Railroad Commission.

That produce shipments billed to Oakland via river boats are unloaded at San Francisco wharves and the commission men obliged to truck goods back by the creek route ferry, pay what tolls, tonnage on the boats, truck transportation and fuel for driver to the detriment of the business man, while the San Francisco police stand at the ferry and force truck drivers to take out costly licenses for their trucks, were points brought out in his protest.

Grande now has a complaint pending before the Railroad Commission regarding the alleged refusal of the transportation companies to land shipments billed to Oakland at Oakland instead of San Francisco. He asked that the council instruct the city attorney to appear at the hearing when it comes up on October 2. For himself, he said that he has personal counsel, but that the matter is one that should be fought by the city as well.

Grande, in appearing before the council, asked that an ordinance levying a license tax on vehicles in Oakland be passed in order to "get even" with San Francisco. Wilbur Walker, secretary of the Merchants' Exchange, who was present, protested against any such license being forced, stating that the merchants were "fifteen years getting rid of such an ordinance and the vehicle tax," and that some other steps should be taken to force the issue. He pointed out that the Superior Court en banc in this county several years ago decided that the levying of a vehicle license tax by the city was discriminatory, and that should the San Francisco proposition be attacked it would probably be held illegal.

CAN'T COMPETE NOW.

Grande, in his statement of conditions to the council, said:

"Oakland commission men cannot hope to compete with San Francisco under the existing conditions. In the first place, there are officials standing at the ferry to hold us up and force us to pay licenses. These run as high as $10 for a truck. If the tag is lost or stolen a new license must be taken out.

"The Southern Pacific Company refuses to stop its river boats at the Oakland wharves. Commission men must pay $1 each way to go to San Francisco with their trucks. Then on top of this we have to pay tolls, freights on the ferry at so much a ton and carfare. This adds to the cost of doing business and increases the price to the consumer on this side of the bay. In addition the perishable goods often are spoiled or not in prime condition for sale. The people get the worst of it both coming and going.

Then again, another instance: During the season when cherry shipments come in from Oregon they are billed to Oakland, sixteenth street. In the first place, Company claims that they cannot unload them there because the railroad company will not stop the trains long enough. As a result the cherries are carried through to the pier and brought back to sixteenth street from twelve to fourteen hours later. But they get them on time in San Francisco.

DELIVERY IS COSTLY.

Practically the bulk of the produce from Alameda and Santa Clara counties that is going into San Francisco is taken on trucks. It costs the truckmen more than it should to deliver it. On the other hand, canneries right in Oakland can obtain fruit that is landed at San Francisco wharves and have it delivered on this side by trucks without this extra tax. There is no excuse for Oakland merchants being forced to cross to San Francisco to get produce that comes from the San Joaquin river points when the shipments are billed to this city. This is the fight that I am now making before the Railroad Commission. The hearing has been postponed from time to time. I was promised aid by the Chamber of Commerce when I finally convinced them that I meant business, and filed my complaint. But since that time I have not heard from them."

COUNCIL OPPOSES TEMPORARY PAVING

The city council today went on record as being opposed to permitting the traction company to lay temporary pavement along its lines on West Sixteenth street and on College avenue where permanent improvement is being made by the property owners.

The application of the company for this permission was made recently and the matter was referred to Commissioner Soderberg of the street department. He reported today recommending that the company be required to pave its portion of these streets with the same type of pavement as the property owners and the city are paving other portions of these streets with, namely, standard.

The commissioner also pointed out that the franchises for College avenue provide that "rails of the most improved pattern" must be used. "I feel that the company is to blame for the position they find themselves in at this time," he said. "They had 300 tons of the proper type of rails in 1915 and allowed them to be taken over by the United Railroads. At the same time there was temporary pavement in Harrison avenue and on East Fourteenth street, which has been in as far back as three years, and the company has made no effort to replace it with permanent pavement. There is no excuse for allowing temporary pavement to go in on West Sixteenth street."

Commissioner Jackson, in explaining his negative vote on the endorsement of the Soderberg recommendation, stated that he feels that the company "should not be put to the expense of laying permanent pavement if it must be done over rails that are not permanent."

Manager W. R. Alberger recently stated to the council that the company has been unable to obtain shipment of the type of rails necessary for its use and that the rails are only sufficient quantity on hand to do a portion of College avenue or Telegraph avenue.

POISONED BY GAS

Fred Graham, an electrician, living at sixteenth street, inhaled gas by accident last night in his room and was treated at the receiving hospital for poisoning. Neighbors detected the smell of gas and went into the house. Graham was asleep with the gas flowing from a gas stove in the kitchen. The gas was turned off on after extinguishing the flame.

WILL ALTER NAME

ROAD IS READY

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—San Francisco added another sixty-eight miles of railroad ready for operation to the municipal system yesterday, when City Engineer O'Shaughnessy announced that the Hetch-Hetchy Railroad is completed to the dam site, with the exception of ballasting, which will be done during operation. It is the city's policy to operate the road as a common carrier. More than 230,000 tons of freight will be hauled eastward, consisting of construction equipment and materials for the Hetch-Hetchy dam and the upper division of the tunnel aqueduct. The heaviest traffic will occur in 1918, when, it is figured, an average of 220 tons a day will be hauled for the city.

'JOKE' CLEW TO ALLEGED
SWINDLER

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—Playing a "joke" on the authorities has left behind William Amborn, former German government employee, wanted in connection with alleged wholesale liquor stock operations, a clew that, according to detectives, will be the means of running him to earth. Amborn, who was a close friend of former Consul-General Franz Epp, thought a wealthy man-about-town and prominent as a physical culture expert, disappeared shortly before the storm broke, leaving behind a pet parrot and a photograph in which he was depicted in physical culture garb, but with his face masked. All other photographs of him were destroyed, and this was left, the police believe, as a joke on them. The joke, however, is not on the detectives, they say. For there was a mirror in the room in which the picture was taken, and in this mirror appears a perfect likeness of the man sought. Lessees to the amount of $20,000 have been reported to the police in connection with the alleged financial career of the German. Two arrests have been made in connection with the affair. M. E. Longfellow, owner of the "United Investment Co." 405 Westbank Building, and Dr. Alfred P. Mass, a physical culturist, are held. Longfellow charged with writing a $700 check in favor of Amborn and Mass on a charge of giving a check to Longfellow that came back marked "no funds." Mass says he is a victim of the practice of signing checks in blank for Amborn to handle his stock deals with. M. L. Estermaux, Christian Science practitioner, claims to be out $700. Mrs. Eugene Hille, owner of the apartment where Amborn lived at 1607 Washington street, says she has lost $2000; the United Investment Company says it lost $1740, and several other losses are alleged. Amborn, since 1914, has been dealing in stocks, according to his landlady. He was before that supposed to be an agent of the Kaiser, and the war is declared to have affected his income. His method, say the alleged victims, was to "invest" small sums of money for them, bring back profits, and then larger sums were invested. "lose." When bad checks began to appear in the deals the police started a probe.

HUNGRY EYES ON POLITICAL PLUMS

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—Scores of candidates are oiling up their campaign guns for the annual political campaign which takes place this year, beginning on September 17. For on that date Registrar J. Harry Zemansky will dust off his ledgers and begin to register the names of candidates for political office in and within the city and county of San Francisco. Eugene E. Schmitz, former mayor, is rumored as a likely candidate for supervisory honors. He will not, however, have entire and unanimous support, as evidenced by this early in the month by statements made yesterday by Max Kuhl, chairman of the 1917 municipal conference. "The municipal conference will not, I am reasonably certain, include Schmitz among its list of candidates for supervisor," he said. John E. McDougald, who has been city treasurer so long that jurist directors refer to the municipal building as "Mac's house," is to be opposed by Byron Maury, well known piano man, who has been induced to enter the lists against the incumbent. "In the city attorney's field, Frank J. Hennessy is out for the position against George Lull, while William J. Hyman, another well-known permanent occupant of a municipal office, who has been public administrator for years, will have to defend his office against Thomas Burke of the Zellerbach Paper company. Campaign labors were begun yesterday by the municipal conference when heads of committees for the 1917 fight were appointed by Chairman Max Kuhl and arrangements made for opening headquarters on September 17, when the declarations of candidacy commence. "Lone Wolf" Coming The season's photo-dramatic sensation, "The Lone Wolf," featuring Ben Lytell and Hazel Dawn, will be at the American Theater all next week. —Adv.

ACTOR ARRESTED
AS AID TO SPIES

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—Rudolfo Lazada, an actor formerly on the Orpheum circuit, at present singing in a Kearny street restaurant, was arrested yesterday by Arthur M. Allen, deputy agent of the Department of Justice, on a telegraphic warrant from San Diego, charging him with conspiring with Carlos de la Sierra to violate the espionage act by rendering aid to the enemy. It is alleged that a full set and equipment for operating a radio station was purchased from the Haller-Cunningham Electric Company in this city on September 4 and an attempt was made to ship the plant to Mexico for the use of Germans there. Lazada when arraigned before United States Commissioner Francis Healy pleaded that he merely acted as an interpreter for de la Sierra, who assured him, as he did the electric company, that arrangements were being made with the authorities in Washington to permit the shipment of the radio outfit to Mexico. Lazada declared that he would waive all formalities to return to San Diego and tell the government all he knew of the case. Lazada's bail was fixed at $5000. He will be brought before the court again this morning.

John L. Sullivan on Overeating.

John L. Sullivan, the ex-pugilist, says that more people die from overeating than from drink. One of the most prominent physicians in England says that is also the case over there. No wonder that so many people are troubled with indigestion. If you have trouble with your stomach adopt a diet suited to your age and occupation. Then if you should have indigestion take Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. For sale by Osgood Bros. drug stores. Advertisement.

HIGH PRICES GIVE D. RUM HARD JOLT

With only 10,000,000 gallons of whiskey in the country on which internal revenues have been paid, or about one year's supply, prices started to rocket today at a tremendous rate. For today is the day when the manufacture of whiskey and the distillation of other spirits halts within the United States by Federal regulation and war measure.

This is the first blow to the Demon Rum and his foster brother Forty-Rod. The second blow comes Monday when all importation of whiskey, gin, brandy, rum or anything else that has been through a liquor still ceases. The only ray of light athwart the horizon's gloom is the vessel on the Atlantic coast, which will all sail at its gasoline engine going and the crew at the oars in racing for America with a load of Scotch aboard, in a wild effort to reach port before the law goes into effect. The eyes and throat of 500,000 Scotchmen are on that ship.

The rise in prices which has been prophesied has come. Straight whiskey is retailing for $1.75 a bottle and blended whiskey for $1.50. Spirits used in rectifying are selling at $2.35 a proof gallon. Almost any kind of whiskey is retailing at from $4 to $5 a gallon. By common consent credit to saloonkeepers has been withdrawn by wholesalers and nothing but cash looks good when a sale is made. Holland gin is selling in some places for $5 a bottle.

WILL SAVE CATTLE

EL PASO, Tex., Sept. 7.—Complying with an urgent request of the Panhandle and Southwestern Stockmen's Association, the Interstate Commerce Commission has ordered 2500 stock cars to southwestern railroads to remove the thousands of head of starving cattle from parched Texas ranges.

Plan & Players

"SO LONG LETTY" IS MACDONOUGH MAGNET.

The biggest, happiest and brightest laugh and music production of the entire season, "So Long Letty," Oliver Morosco's wonderfully successful comedy with music, is holding the boards at the Macdonough theater, Oakland this week, the last two performances taking place tomorrow afternoon and evening. "Letty" is being presented at the Macdonough with practically the same cast that proved a "knockout" in Chicago, Philadelphia, New York, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Charlotte Greenwood, the elongated star, is still directing the risible play, which is still directed by the same method employed in "So Long Letty," and she is ably assisted by Sydney Grant, May Boley, Hal Skelton, several other stars and a wonderful chorus of bathing girls.

"Letty" holds the unique distinction of being a musical play with a decided and intensely interesting plot, rife in spots but decidedly interesting nevertheless, especially in these same spots.

Oliver Morosco is co-author of "So Long Letty," giving Elmer Harris credit for half of the book. Morosco also staged and directed the piece. The song, "So Long Letty" is not only sung and whistled all over the world but Uncle Sam's allies, the Australians, have adopted the song as their "Tipperary."

"SEVEN DAYS" IS BIG ATTRACTION.

Capacity houses at every performance of the screaming farce "Seven Days" at the Bishop playhouse proves very convincingly that the audience is not only heart-reaching kind. Last week, they roared at Ben Erway and George Webster and "Seven Days" at the Bishop playhouse. The whole Bishop staff of players are awarded a big laugh, for in "Seven Days" there is no part that overtops the other.

Next week headed by Will Lloyd the famed comedy takes the boards with "The Road to Happiness."

CIVIL WAR SKETCH HIT AT PLAYHOUSE

Record crowds are attending to the success of what is acclaimed the most pretentious dramatic offering of the season, "The Civil War Sketch," which has been presented this week at the Oakland Playhouse. The sketch, which is the biggest hit ever made by a straight dramatic offering in the west, and, in conjunction with a glorious all-around bill including several of the best known features of the variety stage, is reaping first honors as the headline of a headline program.

It tells the story of a struggle between the spirit of the north and the spirit of the south, giving the audience a picture of two strong nations which even though opposed cannot but impress the audience with their remarkable similarity.

"The Civil War Sketch" is a sparkling play with Jessie Baker and a clever cast, is the spectacular feature of the bill. This remarkable play, which is a picture of two strong nations which even though opposed cannot but impress the audience with their remarkable similarity.

"The Civil War Sketch" is a sparkling play with Jessie Baker and a clever cast, is the spectacular feature of the bill. This remarkable play, which is a picture of two strong nations which even though opposed cannot but impress the audience with their remarkable similarity.

"PIERRE" IS SEEN AS HIPPODROME PLAY.

"Pierre of the Plains" with Roscoe Karns in the leading and title role is proving one of the most thrilling plays of the season at the Hippodrome playhouse. A wonderful opportunity to display his ability as a leading character actor, Virginia Thornton who plays opposite him is sharing in the big applause as is Vilma Black who has a good role in the production and is handling it carefully.

"Pierre of the Plains" will be followed by one of the most elaborate productions of the year. The offering will be none other than George Broadhurst's famous "Bought and Sold" with Virginia Thornton in the leading role and Roscoe Karns in his favorite part of Jimmy.

The show will open on Tuesday as the all-vanderbilt bill will again be presented on Sunday and Monday for the benefit of the variety lovers who will be attending the theater on Admission Day.

FAIRBANKS SCORES ON T. D. D.

Peals of laughter, smiles and chuckles, was the reception accorded Douglas Fairbanks in his latest of rip-roaring comedies, "Down to Earth," which he presented for the first time in Oakland, yesterday, at the new T. D. D. Theater.

"Down to Earth" is Fairbanks' own creation. It was written by him about two months ago, and was just completed by his own company ten days ago. Its exhibition at the theater on Tuesday is the first time it has been shown in this city.

The tale of the play is of itself an exciting one, dealing with a typical American who is a member of the nobles of society gets down to earth and accomplishes results.

The features of entertaining value accompanied by an appropriate musical program, conclude this bill.

INLAND BEACH AT IDORA MECCA.

Old Sol has brought new joys to Idora visitors these September days. The inland beach and the monster open-air pool has again become the rendezvous for young and old. Sunbathers are again in evidence and the mermaids and mermen splash to their hearts' content.

A band concert and the Stars and Stripes informal dance are features of Saturday at Idora. The concert will be presented in the amphitheater by the crack regimental band of the League of the Cross Cadets.

Sunday and Monday the Pacific coast swimming and diving championships will be concluded.

AMERICAN TO SHOW "THE QUESTION."

The tremendous struggle that rages within the breast of a girl who is confronted with the big problem of her life—"shall I give way to convention or cleave to duty?" This ever recurring question and answer are strongly depicted in the new screen drama, "The Question," in which Alice Joyce and Harry Morey are the stars.

The usual double bill is offered, Viola Dana, who was a star in "The Poor Little Rich Girl," on the speaking stage, appearing in a strong production entitled "The Girl Without a Soul," an appealing heart story.

Commencing Sunday "The Lone Wolf" will be shown.

RACING PICTURE IS TRIAL OF FIFING.

A racing picture, with no realisms or enthusiastic thrills forgotten is now playing at the Franklin theater, entitled "The Trial of Fifing." The picture has the role of a young girl whose father has by unscrupulous manipulation gained possession of an old southern mansion. Randolph Manners, the young owner, whose family have lived in the house for years, is ejected and takes temporary residence in the trading quarters of the estate. There the girl meets him and learns of her father's methods. She is attracted by his noble nature and the young southerner and determines to help him out.

By disguising herself in jockey attire and riding in the most spectacular race ever witnessed in the country, she achieves her purpose. The little jockey wins the race but loses her heart to the man she won the race for, which is really quite a "fair play."

Another chapter in the intensely human and amusing manipulations of a young husband's shoe-string finance is Skinner's "Bubble" with Bryant Washburn and Hazel Dyer.

He rapidly approaches the rocks of ruin yet he puts up a brave front before his little wife, who adores him. The wife tells the wife of Skinner's former employer, and she, in turn, tells her husband. Thus it is that just as Skinner is about to go into bankruptcy his former employer makes him a bewilderingly flattering offer.

NEPTUNE OFFERS MANY PLEASURES.

Tomorrow has become the bi-word among the Elks of the bay cities, for this is the date of their annual get-together celebration, which this year will be held at Neptune Beach in Alameda.

The Alameda Lodge of Elks, under whose auspices the outing will be given, are working night and day to make the gathering of the Antlered Herd at Neptune Beach one of the most successful fraternal celebrations ever held in this section.

A special committee of forty "Live Wires" of the local lodge of Elks has been appointed to look after the details of the entertainment, under the leadership of H. D. Maynard, T. H. Hawkins and F. E. Hilver.

Harry Pinkham of the San Mateo lodge of Elks has issued a challenge to Herman Cohn, of the San Francisco lodge Bill Johnson and Ezra Decoto, of the Oakland lodge, and "Dippy Dick" of the Alameda lodge, for a half-mile swim.

WORKER INJURED

Partially conscious but still in a precarious condition, James M. Allen, Moore & Scott ship worker, who was injured yesterday by a falling girder, is at Providence hospital today with an even chance for recovery. Hospital attendants say that if complications do not develop Allen may recover.

Allen was hit by the same girder that struck down and killed Kenneth H. Blackburn, 1811 Carolina street, San Francisco. Both men were standing under the girder, which was being lowered into the hold of a ship, and which slipped. Allen is suffering from internal injuries and a fracture of the skull. He lives at 399 Union street.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1917.

GIVE THE NAMES.

Mayor John L. Davie is quoted as making the following statement in connection with his charge that gamblers are interested in his recall from office:

"Why they [the gamblers] have even come to me using as a mouthpiece one of the most prominent merchants in this city. He was instructed to see me and use his own judgment in passing me sufficient money to insure a wide open town."

The people of Oakland demand the name of this merchant-agent of gamblers. It is the inescapable duty of the mayor to give the name of this man. To withhold it is a vicious neglect of his duty and a faithless disregard of the best interests of the city. To withhold the name of this man and thus prevent an exposure of the tactics of the gamblers is to commit an act as reprehensible as that alleged against the gamblers and their agent.

Give the name of the agent, Mr. Mayor. This is no time for covering up criminal acts, neither for committing libelous falsehoods. You owe it to the fair name and the citizens and every respectable merchant of Oakland, Mr. Mayor, to give the name and all other pertinent details.

GODSPEED THE LIBERTY MEN.

Citizens of Oakland, don't forget that tomorrow night the men of this city selected to serve with America's new liberty army leave on their journey to the mobilization camp in the State of Washington. Don't forget to be in line with the marchers who are to escort them to the railway station and to bid them Godspeed.

The men have been selected to deliver this community's message in defense of national liberties and human rights—the message of fire and blood and steel, to which we set our hands after every peaceful device had been answered with scorn and new acts of frightfulness. They are "ours" in the fullest possible sense of community brotherhood. They are to represent us on that thin borderline of death—the battlefield.

It is the pleasant duty of the citizens of Oakland to see these men off to join the army. Turn out in such force that they will remember it when they are carrying Old Glory into the battle, so that they will know that we will not forget they are trying to keep the flag aloft. Be on hand tomorrow night to wave a goodbye and to show appreciation of their courage to take their place as men before you and the world.

LAW WILL BE ENFORCED.

Not only the I. W. W. but all the organizations and agencies that have been engaged in anti-American activities are to be prosecuted by the federal government. Violations of the laws will no longer be tolerated.

This needed display of energy on the part of the government has been long delayed. The nation has suffered greatly on account of the government's neglect.

The constitutional guarantee of free speech is only for those who use it lawfully. It does not permit violation of the law, or incitement to violation. It does not contemplate indulgence of sedition and treason, of aid to the nation's enemies or harm to the nation's allies.

GOVERNMENT ESTIMATES.

When the lower house of Congress yesterday passed without a dissenting vote the war bond and certificate issue bill authorizing issues totaling $11,538,945,460, a new record in voting war credits was established. This enormous sum added to the $7,000,000,000 of bonds and certificates authorized a few months ago makes over eighteen and one-half billions.

However, the extent to which the government is authorized to increase the national debt is somewhat less than this; there must be deducted the two billions short term certificates authorized in the early part of the present session of Congress and the same class of certificates included in the new bill. These certificates which temporarily are emergency credits are being gradually absorbed by the long term bond. But to the long term bond issues must be added the amount to be raised by the revenue bill, amount not known but which probably will be nearly $3,000,000,000, in order to ascertain what sum the government proposes to spend during the present fiscal year. As near as can be estimated this will be between nineteen and twenty billion dollars.

But this method of figuring is unsatisfactory, because it is unreliable. The Treasury Department estimates are equally as indefinite. Mr. McAdoo announced a few days ago that the expenses of the government up to June 30, 1918, would be $19,300,000,000, and he furnished a statement containing such a total to the House Ways and Means Committee. The estimate included, however, $4,000,000,000 loans to be made to the Allies. The balance is composed of appropriations already made amounting to over nine billions, deficiency appropriations amounting to four and one-half billions, the request of the shipping board for over a billion, of $176,000,000 for war insurance—a project yet to be approved, and $300,000,000 for interest on the public debt.

Obviously it is inaccurate and therefore improper to include all of these items in an alleged budget for the present fiscal year. The shipping board cannot possibly complete its building program by June 30, 1918, and the airplane program, much of the work of increasing the ordnance and artillery supply of the armies, the new navy craft and the coast defenses must of necessity remain unfinished at that date. But first of all, the proposed loan of $4,000,000,000 to the Allies should not have been included in the expenses.

The country would greatly appreciate a more careful and intelligible footing up of "government expenditures" than has yet been offered. Such an accounting would not be difficult, as all the figures are available in the different departments and bureaus. A few weeks ago Mr. McAdoo stated that the expenditures for this fiscal year would amount to $10,735,000,000. Later he says $19,300,000,000, Congress votes a $11,538,000,000 bond issue and the House committee on appropriations recommends the passing of a deficiency appropriation of $4,810,979,000.

These confusing statements of government estimates have furnished effective material to the enemy sympathizers and obstructionists in Congress. The government would lose nothing by presenting a comprehensible account.

When Uncle Sam goes out to buy food he doesn't take stock exchange margins. This is an example in sound business which might well be made the rule for all private purchasers now and after the war.

The new liberty army is America's answer to the peace chicanery of autocracy.

NOTES and COMMENT

The Az Est approves President Wilson's note. This is more important than may be thought from a casual reading. The Az Est is a Hungarian newspaper.

Wars may come and wars may go, but that fact makes no difference in some respects. The German crown princess has given birth to another princelet.

After three years they are still saying it. Chancellor Michaelis solemnly reiterates that this war was started by Russia. No use in taking issue.

The Tagblatt predicts paper clothes for the German people by next spring. At least it can be claimed that paper is an advance on fig leaves.

The Russian Amazons certainly bear out their title in looks. But it is time somebody should look ferocious in Russia—and bear out their appearance in action.

The American Bar Association, in session at Saratoga, has done its bit. It has resolved that the Kaiser's methods are illegal. There would appear from this to have been somebody who was in doubt about it.

Viscount Ishii has embraced more than one opportunity to fire American enthusiasm. Withal, he sounds a sober note to the effect that there is serious work ahead, thus keeping out of the class of mere glad-handers.

A big German retreat in the West is foreshadowed. When it transpires it will be announced as a great strategic Teutonic victory, without much doubt.

The Federal government has acted comprehensively with regard to the I. W. W. That action was bound to eventuate after the outcome of the efforts in Montana and Washington to deal with the subject.

Commissioner Dillman of Alameda is of the opinion that there are too many laws. He refers to his municipality, but his observation could have a much wider application.

These disclosures of the Kaiser's machinations away back in times of peace have ceased to surprise. That he had the intent twelve years ago to do to Denmark what he did to Belgium is a confirmation of the President's insight that was manifest in his note. The Kaiser can't be trusted in any direction.

Food Conservationist Hoover started something when he instructed dining car and other public purveyors not to serve vast lamb or omelette. The idea is to let them grow to maturity and thus increase the stock population. Like so many other things that are proposed, it is volubly explained how it can't be done.

LET THEM TALK.

Sweden wants the neutral nations of Europe to meet and discuss the American embargo. They may accept her invitation, but as far as this country is concerned, talking over the situation is not going to improve it as long as the embargo prevents them from keeping Germany supplied at our expense. In fact, such a very simple situation is one to be accepted, not discussed.—Baltimore American.

TODAY 20 YEARS AGO

Justices Hall and Ogden rendered a decision in the superior court which left the city of Berkeley without a justice and a justice court. In a case in which Justice Gentry of Berkeley was complainant, Justice Hall sustained the contention of defendant that the justice court in Berkeley had no legal existence and that he had not been committed by a legal magistrate, since the act under which the justice of Berkeley was created was against the constitution.

Mayor Frank Hastings, a wealthy resident of San Leandro, one of the most energetic workers for a tidal canal in San Leandro Bay, said that a co-operative cannery would be among the immediate industrial developments in that city.

WESTERN EDUCATION AND POLYGAMY

A recent number of The Far Eastern Review contains an interesting article on the effect western education is having on the oriental custom of plural marriages, and the tremendous good the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. are doing in various Far Eastern cities. After speaking of the rapid growth of membership noted in Shanghai, Peking, Yokohama and other cities where the Y. M. C. A. has been established, the article goes on to say:

It would seem that the Caucasian must take thought to the morrow, even though the day of his extinction as a world factor may appear so remote as one, two or perhaps five centuries away. How best to restrict the over-populating of the world and the increase of mouths that must be fed far beyond the capacity of the earth to produce, therefore, is a vital question. The answer is universal monogamy, but it is not so much the answer as the means whereby it may be brought about that is of importance. And here is where the two associations for young men and young women come into play.

And that of the two, the Young Women's Christian Association, some day will be the greater and more powerful factor in bringing this great desideratum about seems without question. Give a man higher standards and he naturally looks for a helpmeet who can enjoy the better things of life with him. He will turn unerringly to the woman who has had a training similar to his own and will pass by those whose experience and ideas are utterly out of accord with the new thoughts that western education has brought into his mind. As things are now, the Oriental man—be he Japanese, Chinese, Turk or Polynesian—is privileged to have and hold as many women as he can support. And as a general thing the more wives he has the easier it becomes for him to be supported since a wife asks no salary but is willing to work her fingers to the bone for food and clothing and a roof over her head. Her status, even though she be a secondary, tertiary or even a tenth wife, is superior to that of the unmarried woman in that she has the protection of a husband or a tenth of one at least.

So long as the Oriental man is able to arrogate himself the right to possess plural wives, just so long will polygamy prevail. But there is a way out and one which is becoming broader and more easy to tread each year. Easier for the new woman at least, for marriages among the returned girl students take place soon after they reach China again and scarcely one nuptial contract is drawn there that does not contain an agreement, either in black and white or tacit at least, that the wife shall be the only wife so long as she shall live. The wife with foreign education is a precious thing in China in the eyes of the returned students since she is one of a few women of her own race that realizes and understands his peculiar aspirations. Rubles are as nothing compared to her, and her slightest pre-nuptial wish is law. She has it in her hands to be the one and only wife and if the few examples that have come under the writer's notice are any criterion, she will exert that power to the uttermost.

Somehow the education in Christian thought and ideals that is furnished by the associations seems to strike more deeply into the hearts and minds of the women than those of the man. The latter sometimes—often perhaps—lapse into olden ways, but the women never. The virus of western thought, for such the uninitiated esteem it, seems to become a part of the root fibres of the woman and remains with her for life. This being the case, and also admitting that it is to the interest of the woman rather than the man to abolish plural marriage, it certainly follows that education of the Oriental woman will have far greater power for shaping the destiny of the Eastern races into Western moulds so far as monogamy is concerned.

Therefore it behooves those who are working and contributing toward the uplift of the men through the Young Men's Christian Association not to forget the young women. The hand that rocks the cradle adage is just as true in the East as in the West and the shaping of the immature minds of the young is the work of the mother here as everywhere else. Indubitably, the influence of the woman in overthrowing the one factor that makes the Oriental a race apart is double that of the man and she should be aided accordingly. They are the fertile ground that has no tares nor stony ground to choke or wither the good seed once it is planted; and to paraphrase the immortal Terence Mulvaney, "catch them young enough and educate them high enough and it is not continental armies but age-long customs they'll be smashing" to the everlasting benefit of countless generations yet to come.

CANTONMENT WORK TO BE COMPLETED

CAMP FREMONT, Sept. 7.—Secretary of War Baker having approved of this cantonment, preparations were under way today for its completion. Utilized as an emergency camp for the time being, every effort will be made by the government to make it as complete as any of its other cantonments throughout the United States.

With 95 per cent of the camp complete, a normal force of carpenters and construction workers will be able to finish the work in five or six days, according to expert estimations. That this work will begin again immediately is the word that comes out of Washington.

The war department head made his order for completion dependent upon approval by the state board of health of a camp sewage disposal system costing not more than $15,000 additional. Already $80,000 has been expended by the government for a sewer system. The $15,000 will be used for connections from the latrines to the trunk lines. The trunk lines run between the latrines and the wash house pipes. Over the question of water-dashed latrines Camp Fremont almost became a permanently deserted camp, with the war department and state board of health differing.

According to word from Washington no change will be made in plans to send the Forty-first division to Camp Greene, Charlotte, N. C. The Forty-first was originally intended for training here. Officers here believe that the camp will be utilized for the time being as a depot base and that later troops may be sent here.

Although Camp Fremont has lost the Forty-first, say Menlo Park residents, it has gained a modern sewer

PLANTS JUBILEE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—Nevada silver men are so elated over the rapidly soaring value of that product of their state that Governor Emmet D. Boyle yesterday was asked to declare a state holiday when it reached the $1 mark.

J. H. Sexton, Nevada railroad and mining man, now at the Palace hotel, sent this message to Governor Boyle:

"The price of silver 95 1/2 cents in New York this morning. Would it be possible to consider declaring a public holiday when the state should the price reach a dollar an ounce?"

The governor replied:

"Thanks for information and suggestion, which I will give very serious consideration."

system—which is just as important. A secret report, sent to the war department by a civilian engineering committee appointed to prepare sewerage plans by Colonel Fleischauer, construction quartermaster here, is now in the hands of Secretary of War Baker. If this report, recommending the state board of health plan, is accepted, the state board of health will at once place its official stamp of assent upon the government's work.

GIRL IN CAR AIDS ROBBERS IN ESCAPING

TRIBUNE BUREAU

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—A bold gang of thieves attired as soldiers and aided by a girl who picks them up after each robbery in a fast automobile is being sought by the police, following an epidemic of early morning hold-ups that in the past few days have baffled detectives. This morning the mysterious girl in the automobile was seen to pick up the gangsters after a hold-up, and the secret of the sudden disappearance of the thugs was explained for the first time.

The first robbery of this morning was that of W. E. Leet, living at the St. Francis Hotel. Leet was held up by three of the gang, two in soldiers' uniforms, and relieved of his watch, money and jewelry, at Eighteenth and Market streets. This was at 3:30 o'clock. After the robbery Leet saw the automobile, a large touring car, drive past and the men board it. He got a good look at the girl driving the machine and heard her giving directions to the men.

Shortly afterwards the police had another call from the Stockton Hotel. Joseph Mith, a guest, was robbed by the two men in soldier costume as he was entering the place. The escape was made in the same manner. A close watch is being made on night-traveling automobiles, and the police, with descriptions in hand, expect to have the gang within a few days.

COLLEGES SHRINK

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Estimates of decreases of from 10 to 20 per cent in the number of students at eastern colleges due to the war have been made from registration figures.

SUGAR SUPPLY FIGURES SHOWN IN U. S. REPORTS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—There were eighty-one pounds of sugar per capita in the home markets of the United States during the fiscal year ending June 30 last, against twenty-eight pounds in 1916 and eighty-nine pounds the year before the war.

In making public these figures the department of commerce announced that the United States imported 7,742,720,000 pounds of sugar and produced 2,267,251,840 pounds. Exports for the year totaled 1,248,840,336 pounds of refined sugar and 5,000,000 pounds as re-export, leaving a total available in home markets of 8,446,099,534 pounds.

The average price of the imported sugar, the bulk of which came from Cuba, was 4 1/2 cents a pound, an increase of 112 per cent in three years.

Of the sugar produced in this country, 821,799,360 pounds was cane and 1,645,452,480 pounds beet sugar.

MAY TRY ANEW TO AID BILLINGS

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—Whether attorneys for Warren K. Billings, whose plea for retrial on the preparedness parade bomb charge on which he was convicted and sentenced for life was denied yesterday by the District Court of Appeals, will continue their efforts in his behalf has not yet been announced. It is expected further action will await the outcome of the Money and other cases.

Billings was convicted in Superior Judge Dunne's court, September 23 of last year, of the murder of Mrs. Myrtle Irene Van Loo, wife of Kingsley Van Loo, of 384 Clark street, Alameda, one of the ten persons killed during the preparedness parade. The trial in the higher court was based on the contention that Billings' conviction was due largely to circumstantial evidence. Replying to this yesterday, the appellate court gave its opinion that circumstantial evidence was a matter that rested entirely with the jury. Perceiving no error, the court affirmed the conviction.

Billings was saved from the death penalty, according to the jurors who convicted him, only because of a belief that he was merely a tool in the hands of more dangerous criminals and because the jury hoped that he might later confess and bring to justice the real plotters.

Thousands of Native Sons and Native Daughters of Oakland and all the other east bay communities will leave for Sacramento tomorrow to take part in the three-day Admission Day celebration. All arrangements have been completed for every east bay parlor to take an active part in the festival. Open house will be kept by all the parlor and in the big parade on Monday the Alameda county division will be the largest single division in the entire parade.

Special trains will leave Oakland tomorrow evening, the Western Pacific leaving at 9 o'clock and the Southern Pacific and Oakland & Antioch trains at 9:30 o'clock. At 8:30 Sunday morning there will be special Southern Pacific and Oakland & Antioch trains. Tickets can be procured at the following downtown stores: L. S. Bertillon; Sherman, Clay & Co.; Norton, Ains & Co. and Harry G. Williams, Commercial.

E. F. Garrison, chairman of the general committee, says the parlor have co-operated in making the delegation a banner one and more than 3000 men and women will make the trip. The east bay parlor will have a number of beautiful floats in the parade and the drill teams and bands will not only take part in the parade but also compete for the big prizes to be offered in competitions.

OFFICIAL IS SUED

RENO (Nev.) Sept. 7.—According to a divorce complaint filed here today by Lucille Wilson, her husband, Huntington Wilson, former assistant Secretary of State under Roosevelt, is cruel, domineering and a man with whom living is a miserable existence. Mrs. Wilson is well known in New York society. Mrs. Wilson in her complaint alleges in addition that her husband forced her to take long and tedious trips throughout the country with him when she was in delicate health. It is understood a financial settlement outside of court has been made. This is Wilson's second shipwreck upon the sea of matrimony.

DIES OF WOUNDS

Word has been received from Seward, Alaska, of the death of J. J. Cunningham, a labor contractor whose office was at 233 Third street in this city. Cunningham died at the Larsons Bay Salmon Cannery, August 27, of wounds received last July, when he attempted to halt a riot of Filipino laborers at the cannery, and was stabbed in the back. The cannery is ten miles from Uyak on Kodiak Island.

Society News

Through the medium of betrothal cards Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Buteau of Oakland today announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Alice Buteau, and Frank Couper Bell of this city. Incidentally, this afternoon Miss Buteau told the interesting bit of news to a group of her most intimate girl friends at luncheon when she was the honor guest of Mrs. Frank R. Makinson, at the latter's home in Corona avenue.

A year ago Mrs. Makinson, who was then Miss Helen Martin of Piedmont, formally announced her engagement at a tea party given by Miss Buteau in her honor. Today Mrs. Makinson is returning the compliment. The luncheon table was artistically planned in pink rosebuds and tulle and fern, a large basket of the buds crowning the center.

Miss Buteau is one of the attractive younger girls of this city and is at present a student at the State Normal school in San Francisco.

Mr. Bell is the son of Mrs. Mary M. Bell of this city. He is a graduate of the University of California, having taken his degree with the class of 1917. He is a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity and of the Tau Beta Pi honor fraternity for engineers. Bell was among the first selected in the draft and will go in training at American lake camp.

The wedding of Miss Buteau and Mr. Bell will follow the graduation of the bride-elect from the normal school in May.

Besides the younger girls entertained this afternoon at Mrs. Makinson's there were present Mrs. S. H. Buteau, Mrs. Mary Bell and Mrs. Theodore Schleuter.

The informal tea over which Mrs. Hayward G. Thomas presided as hostess this afternoon at her home in Vernon Heights served two purposes, the greeting of Mrs. Thomas' daughter-in-law, Mrs. Hayward Thomas Jr., and as a farewell to the daughter of the house, Miss Katherine Thomas, who leaves September 12 for the East.

Mrs. Thomas Jr. is a bride of but a few months, her marriage to Mr. Thomas having taken place in Los Angeles. The bride was Miss Louise Keeney, a belle of the southern city.

Assisting Mrs. Hayward G. Thomas to receive this afternoon were Mrs.

Hayward G. Thomas Jr., Miss Katherine Thomas, Mrs. Frederick Hathaway, Mrs. John L. Howard, Mrs. Maurice Walsh, Mrs. Edward Von Adelung, Mrs. Frank Adams, Mrs. Milton Bulkley, Mrs. Guy C. Earl, Mrs. George Westcott, Mrs. Arthur Munson, Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. Charles Snook, Mrs. E. N. Ezer, Robert H. T. Martenne and Miss Marion Fitzhugh, Miss Ruth Edinger, Miss Mabel Moller and Miss Pauline Dillman.

Lake Tahoe has attracted many of the smart set to its shores during the Indian summer, and among those who have motored there of recent date are Mrs. and Mr. Leon Boqueron, Mrs. Philip M. Clay, Mrs. H. F. Moore Jr. and Mrs. J. P. J. Polam, Mrs. John L. Howard, Mrs. John L. Howard Jr., Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bissell and Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Preston.

Miss Mora MacDonald, daughter of Mrs. Augustin S. MacDonald of Vernon Heights, who leaves this month for Palo Alto to resume her studies at Miss Barker's school, for the ladies, will entertain a social evening with an informal dance for her closest friends Saturday, September 15. Miss MacDonald will be the guest of Miss Elizabeth Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walton N. Moore, at a delightful affair.

This week Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert L. Curtis returned from a three months' tour of the East and Canada and have again opened the family home in Oakland. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis made the return trip via Canada, stopping at Banff, Lake Louise and Victoria. At the latter place they were guests at the Empress Hotel, one of the finest in that section of the country. Mrs. Curtis was exceptionally interested in the Red Cross work of the dominion and the manner in which funds were raised for the cause. One of the unusual features of the fund-raising fund is through the "House of Superstudies," as it is called. Here have been collected heirlooms of great value, handsome furnishings no longer needed in many homes. By no means does it resemble a rummage sale, since everything is perfect and many of the useful articles for sale are the handiwork of the Canadian women. It is the duty of an appraiser to stamp his stamp on the articles and their value and some $30,000 has been raised in the city of Victoria through this means.

Again to a handsome little Spitz canine goes the honor of having added $3000 to the Red Cross fund. This little animal takes his station day after day, just opposite the house of Parliament. Here he stands guard over various little banks in which passing-by donors drop their contributions. A little sign which reads "I Am Collecting for the Red Cross."

Miss Dorothy Percival of Elko, Nev., has arrived in Oakland and will enter Miss Merwin's school in Piedmont this semester. She is at present the house guest of Miss Jeanne Crane.

Orders from Washington, which left but a few hours before the departure of the bride's brother, Lieutenant Edmund Stillman, U. S. A., for Fortress Monroe, Virginia, were the cause of the sudden change in wedding plans of Miss Mary Stillman and Emerson McMillan. Butterworth of Portland.

formed at high noon yesterday by the Rev. Frederick Hoamer, former pastor of the Unitarian Church in Berkeley. There were no attendants upon the bride and her sister's marriage. The bride wore a pretty afternoon gown of white Georgette crepe, with picture hat of white and orange of crepe and little of the veil.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Butterworth were graduates of the class of 1916. The bride is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and her husband of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Mrs. Butterworth moved in the same cottage as Miss Jane Bangs, Miss Myra Treat, Miss Allen Treat and others of that set. Mr. Butterworth is the son of the late Irwin Butterworth of Portland. At present he is engaged in geological work for the Standard Oil Company.

In Berkeley, Wednesday evening, a vaudeville show was given by a number of the college contingent in a farewell to Sydney K. Russell, composer of the 1917 extravaganza at the University of California. It was an impromptu affair, staged in the ballroom of the Hotel Shattuck. Among the participants were William Hillman, Miss Janet Knox, Miss Louise Billington, Mrs. B. B. Welrick of Montana, Alfred Schroeder, Henry Gnaica, Robert Halston and Niles Nelson.

At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Alexander McGavock, in Berkeley way, yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, Miss Alice McGavock became the bride of Elmer E. Colwell, Rev. X. Morrison of St. Joseph's Church officiating. The ceremony was performed before an improvised altar in the drawing room. Mrs. Colwell's wedding gown was of royal blue georgette crepe over crepe de chine, embroidered in French floral design. She wore a large hat of black and orange of Cecil Brunner rosebuds. There were no attendants upon the couple. Only the family and relatives were guests at the ceremony. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served in the tea room of the Hotel Shattuck. Pink snapdragons and maiden hair fern were used in the decoration of the bride's table.

Mr. and Mrs. Colwell will make their home in Piedmont.

A number of the social set have received cards from Mrs. Walter Starr of Piedmont for a tea the afternoon of September 18, at which the hostess is planning to introduce to her friends Mrs. Vernon Kellogg, who is to tell of relief work in Belgium. Several of the younger matrons and girls are to assist in receiving that day.

In compliment to Miss Marion Hook, the fiancée of Edwin H. Gatti, wait Jr., a bridge tea will be given by Mrs. Lloyd Hook (Genevieve Pratt) at the home of her father, Dr. A. H. Pratt, of this city. Only a few of the most intimate friends of the hostess are to be guests.

Saturday, September 15, is the date set for the marriage of Miss Helen Downey and Harry Sumner Houghton, the ceremony to be performed in the Church of the Advent. The guests are to number only the immediate families of the engaged couple. It is probable that the home of Houghton and his bride-to-be will be in the southern part of the state.

DIES WITH BRIDE
CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—William Haake, a painter, who left for service in the national army from the Ford today, and his 18-year-old bride were found dead in their home here today, evidently victims of a suicide pact.

WITH OAKLAND'S BUSY WOMEN AND THEIR CLUBS

By Edna B. Kinard

The woman who knows that she does not know and sets about remedying her lack of knowledge commands an honorable mention. It may be that once she was conversant on the subject but time, the disuse of those particular brain cells has completely obliterated all familiarity with its phases. It was fairly put to the women of the Oakland center, formerly Civic League, last year when a question in the United States Constitution arose that the best anyone in the membership could offer was "think." Nobody knew—save a French woman. The American citizens were embarrassed.

But they found out that they did not know. They have set about the business of knowing. A section designed alone for the study of the Constitution of the United States is being organized. It will meet on the first and third Friday mornings of the month at Hotel Oakland. The direction of the class has been given to Mrs. A. F. Coffin, who promises a rigid course in not only the text of the famous document, but years of history. The section is an open one to the members of the center.

The official cards for the registration of women will arrive with the beginning of the week when Registration Day will be named. The tremendous work of making a complete enrollment of the woman forces of the city will be under the direction of the Oakland unit, woman's committee, Councils of National and State Defense. Already Mrs. Frank Law has completed an organization of the precincts upon which divisions the campaign will be based. It is expected that one day will finish the task. Headquarters will be established at the home of Mrs. Law, which has been outlined similar to those in a municipal election. At this same time the food pledge campaign will be concluded.

The National Council of Defense has prepared the federal card which will be used. A quantity of exact data is asked on each blank with a large number of services from which each woman may elect the field in which she is best fitted should the need arise. No obligation is attached to the filling out of the card. It is asked for that a complete survey may be made of the feminine forces of the nation.

Miss Hannah Patterson, who was elected secretary of the woman's section of the Council of National Defense, made immediate demonstration that efficiency was not a dream of perfection. Within the space of two days she was able to announce her plan of campaign with short cuts which speeded up her department to its capacity. Miss Patterson is acting as executive secretary pro tem for the important body of women in suffrage campaigns she has been a prominent figure as well as in movements which tended to civic betterment.

It is a tried preparation and is of the greatest value to expectant mothers.

DAVIE WON'T TELL NAME OF 'BRIBER'

These were the developments today in the campaign to recall Mayor John L. Davie:

Recall forces announce petition with 700 more than required number of signatures will be filed with the city clerk this afternoon.

Mayor Davie charges that the call is being financed by Chinese gamblers and women of the underworld.

Executive committee for the recall points to its membership, including prominent men and women from civic and commercial organizations, women's clubs and improvement clubs, to prove the foolishness of the charge.

Mayor Davie announces that he has been approached by a mysterious Chinese gambler seeking to obtain his help in having the lotteries opened.

Recall forces accept statement as probably true, if the mayor says so, but that it has to do with the recall.

Mayor is quoted as declaring "the Hotel Oakland, where I live, is getting to be a meeting place for these gamblers."

Mayor declares he did not say that the hotel was getting to be a meeting place for gamblers, but that "the vicinity" of the Hotel Oakland was getting to be a meeting place for gamblers.

While declining to give any names or details in connection with his charges that proponents of the recall have accepted money from "Chinese gamblers and women of the underworld," Mayor Davie today declared that if the recall petition is filed against him he will reveal the information he claims he has in his possession to prove his charges.

FIGHT FOR WITHDRAWAL. That the recall petition will be filed late this afternoon was announced by Attorney Henry E. Skinner, representing the recall forces.

Skinner stated that the petition will carry the necessary 403 signatures and approximately 700 additional names to be on the safe side. He declared he was not filing more, as he had been informed that George Kaufman, Mayor Davie's attorney, was making every effort to obtain withdrawal.

The recall forces are now concentrating their efforts in lining up names for a supplementary or amended petition, should this become necessary as a result of the campaign to be made by the Davie forces for withdrawal.

Mayor Davie refrained from explaining why he had been given money by Chinese gamblers and other vice-interests was connected with his fight to recall.

Attempts had been made to bribe him, and that "the vicinity" of the Hotel Oakland was getting to be a meeting place for gamblers.

CONCEALS NAME. This is what Mayor Davie had to say about the attempt to bribe him:

"Why, they even come to me, using as a mouthpiece one of the most prominent merchants in Oakland. He was instructed to see me and use his own judgment in passing me sufficient money to insure a withdrawal. It was my duty to 'fix' the new chief of police, Henry Nedderman."

Mayor Davie declined to give out the name of the merchant.

"That would be an injustice to him," Mayor Davie explained, "and I would not reveal the identity of his visitor. He came to me as my friend."

"Will he testify if you make charges before the Grand Jury?"

"I cannot say," said the Mayor. "This is not the time to discuss the matter. Wait until the recall is filed."

"Here is an instance of what is going on. A Chinese gambler has been meeting me at all hours of the day and night when I am out walking and endeavoring to take up a conversation. He always holds a handkerchief over the lower part of his face, so that I am not able to identify him."

TRICKS THAT ARE VAIN. Whether this mysterious Chinese with the handkerchief over his face is the same one who is supposed by the Mayor to be supporting the recall, the Mayor did not disclose. He said the Chinese wears American attire, and that he believes he is well known in the Chinese section. If he could learn the identity, he would be able to identify him.

Mayor Davie's statement that he is followed by the Chinese is confirmed by Maurice Shenick, assistant manager of the Hotel Oakland. Shenick stated that Chinese wait for the Mayor to leave the hotel and follow him down the street. He said he had seen the one with the white

Indian Minstrel Tells of Old Myths California Has Early Literature

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Sept. 7.—

The surprising fact that California once had a professional class of minstrels or tellers of tales, like the wandering troubadours of the Middle Ages or the story tellers who sit in the market-places of Oriental cities, has been pointed out by Edward Winslow Gifford, associate curator of the anthropological museum of the University of California. He has found a living survivor of these aboriginal California bards in the person of an old Miwok Indian—Thomas Williams of Jamestown.

These California troubadours were known among the Miwok Indians of Tuolumne county as "Utentbe" or "Myth-tellers." The "Utentbe" traveled from village to village in the Sierra foothills. In the assembly-house such a wandering minstrel sat and chanted his myths, or told them in spoken prose. Often it took the whole night long to tell a single myth. The "Utentbe" were

THEFT OF FIRE, OR WHY MEN

Lizard lay on a rock and saw flames flashing from the smoke-hole in the top of the big assembly-house. He said to himself: "Come up here—'you'll see sparks!'"

He said to Coyote: "Come up here—'you'll see sparks!'"

After Coyote saw the fire, and told everyone in the assembly-house. The people told Mouse, the Fute-Player, to go up to the fire.

Fute-Player answered: "Yes. Telling no one, he left, taking with him four flutes. He played two flutes while he traveled in the valley. When he arrived at the assembly-house he did not know how to enter, for Bear, Rattlesnake, and Mountain Lion guarded the door, and Eagle kept his wing over the smoke-hole so that no one might enter. Finally he cut two feathers from Eagle's wing and entered undetected. When he descended into the smoke-hole, he found the people asleep. He filled his four flutes with coals of fire and then made off for home. The people woke up and went running over the hills, but they did not find him. Then Eagle sent Wind in pursuit, then Rain, then Hall Hall, then Fute-Player. But Fute-Player placed his flutes in the water and told Hall he had nothing—then he fled like one on fire. Hall beat him and departed.

Then Fute-Player recovered his flutes, and played upon them, and said to himself: "I have my flutes!"

Fute-Player reached home with fire in the four flutes. Coyote ran and told people to gather round the Fute-Player, bringing fire. Fute-Player climbed on top of the assembly-house and played his flute. Everyone inside the house could hear the fire. When Fute-Player had finished playing one flute, he dropped coals through the smoke-hole into the assembly-house. The people in the middle received the fire, and the others received but little. Those who were close to the fire talked distinctly; but the others did not, because they were in the middle of the house. The middle people talked correctly; for they were around the fire, and they obtained acorns and manzanita and other food. The middle people ate only raw food, or else had nothing to eat. This is all because Coyote interrupted Mouse the Fute-Player by shouting before he had finished playing the other flute.

That's why people don't all speak the same language. They would all have talked correctly if they had all received fire.

But now people fight each other, because they don't understand each other's speech.

BEARS AND THE FAWNS, OR WHY IT

"Sister-in-law, let's get clover! I like clover," said Bear to Deer.

"Yes, we'll eat clover," replied Deer. "We'll leave these girls, the Fawns, until we return!" said Bear to the Fawns.

Then Bear and Deer went down to eat clover. When they had come to the clover, Bear said: "Let's sit down and rest." Then Bear said: "You have a better husband than I have. I can't get them all by picking them out. Let me chew your hair with them. That's the only way to remove them. Don't be afraid. Stoop, and let me try."

Deer thought Bear's intentions were good, and stooped down, but instead of chewing Deer's hair, Bear bit her neck and killed her, and ate her all up except the liver, and that she took home in a basket, with clover on top of it. When Bear came home, she told the Fawns to eat the clover.

"Your mother hasn't come yet," said Bear to the Fawns. "You know she always takes her time coming home." When the Fawns had eaten the clover they found the liver in the bottom of the basket.

"Our aunt killed our mother," said the younger Fawn.

"We'd better watch, or she'll kill us too," said the older Fawn.

"Our aunt will kill us, if we stay here," said the younger Fawn. "Let's go to our grandfather's before our aunt kills us, as she killed our mother."

"Don't forget to take the ax!" said the older Fawn.

When Bear came home, she saw no Fawns, but she set out to follow their tracks. A basket of liver and left at home whistled. Bear ran back to see if the Fawns had returned. Again Bear started from the house. As she went she saw the Fawns had thrown in different directions again whistled, and Bear, thinking the Fawns were whistling, left the trail in search of them. Whenever Bear heard the whistles, she grew angry and ran toward the sound, but she saw nothing, and returned to her house. "Where are you, girls?" cried Bear. The ax whistled in response and Bear ran toward the sound. Then she grew angrier still, and said to herself: "I catch you, I'll eat you!"

The Fawns followed the long trail until they came to a river. Across the river they saw their grandfather, Daddy-Long-legs. They told him Bear had eaten their mother. Their grandfather stretched his long legs across the river and walked across the river on his leg.

Then Bear came to the bank and asked Daddy-Long-legs to put his long legs across the river so she might cross. "All right," said Daddy-Long-legs.

But when Bear reached the middle, Daddy-Long-legs gave a sudden spring and threw her into the air, and into the river she fell, and had to swim ashore. Then she ran fast after the Fawns.

"But sister, before she comes! We handkerchief trying to get into conversation with the Mayor."

What is the Chinese seeking? It is a mystery. Nobody has ever seen him catch up with the Mayor. Davie has no explanation to give of the peculiar actions of his Oriental follower. As quoted in the first instance, this is all he would say:

"The Hotel Oakland, where I reside, is getting to be a meeting place for gamblers. Almost every time I go out I run into little coterie of white and Chinese gamblers in earnest conversation, and everyone knows they are not talking for conversation's sake alone. They are conspiring."

VICINITY, HE EXPLAINS. Today Mayor Davie hastily rang up Assistant Manager Shenick, and assured him that he had not said the Hotel Oakland itself was the meeting place for gamblers, but only the vicinity.

"I was glad to learn he had been misquoted," said Shenick. "We could not stand for a statement of that kind. It is manifestly untrue. There is no gambling going on in the hotel, and any one who lives here knows it. But the Mayor assures me he only said in the vicinity of the hotel, and not the hotel itself."

Dr. L. F. Herrick, president of the Taxpayers' league, stated that he also knew about the "prominent merchant" going to the Mayor and telling him that certain interests were ready to provide sufficient money if they could induce him to "open up the town."

"I was with the Mayor when this man told us," said Dr. Herrick. "He is doing a big business in this city right now, and his word is to be relied upon."

regarded for their chanting by presents from the audience of beads, furs and food.

The picturesqueness and the dramatic quality of California's treasure of native American tales is manifest in the collection of "Miwok Myths" collected by Gifford and just issued in the "University of California Publications in American Archaeology and Ethnology." The fact that they were obtained from a man who was among the aborigines that rare phenomenon, a conscious artist, undoubtedly has much to do with the unusual literary charm of these stories, as taken down by Gifford from the lips of the Indian teller of tales.

Here are some much-condensed versions of some of these fantastic stories, which well deserve a place among the fairy tales the white man has brought with him from Germany, England or Italy, or borrowed from the negro, or from the traditions of the Semitic peoples.

door with these boulders every time he goes out."

Then the brother rolled aside the boulders and went in through the house. "There are the Giant's two sons," said his sister-in-law, pointing to her children.

"Crush some obsidian," said Chipmunk's brother, "if the Giant or his brothers overtake you while you are on your way home, throw the crushed obsidian in their faces."

She started off, and her brother-in-law went after her. The Giant and his wife saw the two young giants by hitting them on the ankle, for it was there they kept their hearts. After he had killed them he gouged out their eyes and threw them into the fire.

When the Giant came home he chased Chipmunk's brother around the house, but Chipmunk's brother was too quick for him.

"You can't catch me unless you dance," said Chipmunk's brother. "After you dance I'll let you catch me. I want to see you dance first." So the Giant danced.

"Dance more!" said Chipmunk's brother. "I like to see you dance." So while the Giant danced, Chipmunk's brother climbed on top of the house, and suddenly he struck the Giant across the neck and cut off his head. He cut the Giant to pieces and scattered the flesh over the trees and rocks.

Then a large number of the Giant's brothers came to visit the Giant, and saw the Giant's head lying beside a spring. They cooked the meat and ate it, not knowing it was their own brother's flesh, until they found his head lying beside a spring. They then cooked the meat and ate it, not knowing it was their own brother's flesh, until they found his head lying beside a spring.

The Giant's brother dreamed his sister-in-law was on the way to her father's house. So he lay on his back after her, but she threw crushed obsidian into their faces and they had to stop to pick it out of each other's eyes.

"We're near home!" she cried to her daughter. "Don't be frightened! Your grandfather Lizard will save us."

When they reached their father's house, she called: "Hurry! Open the door! The Giant killed and ate your son-in-law!"

Then her father opened the door, and after his daughter had stopped inside, he spat on it, and the whole house turned into rock, so that the Giant's brother could not open the door.

The Giants outside the house began to sing and dance. Then said the old man, her father: "Let the wind blow them away!"

Then a great wind blew, but the Giant's brothers were not blown away. They were blown away, but the Giant's brothers were not blown away.

Then the old man called a great snow, and the great snow covered everything. But after the snow had covered the Giants, they shouted and the snow melted away. Then the old man called the hail, but the Giant's brother shouted and the hail ceased. Then Lizard called for a flood to wash away the Giant's brothers, and before they were drowned by the water.

"Chipmunk's brother is there now," she said. "He said to me: 'Go to your father. I will stay here and take my brother's place. I am ready for another Giant!'"

TAKEN FOR THEFT

With the arrest today of Austin Huffman, 14 years of age and William Wallace, 12 years of age, the police have solved the mystery of a number of thefts of automobile tires that have occurred recently.

Stone, a 25-year-old man, living at 1575 Madison street, was taken into custody as the result of disclosures made by the two boys. The police say that considerable of the loot was found in his possession, and that Stone admits having disposed of goods to junk-dealers.

A Word With You

Do your bit. Support the Government and better your own condition at one and the same time. The present cost of meat is not the reason for the high cost of living. It is the fact that the people in general have grown to expect so much service. Rather than go to market and purchase to the best advantage, and carry their packages home, they would leave the selection to another without regard of prices, and have the goods delivered. The Lewis Market has no delivery system, and extends no credit, and is able to sell their meats at prices which are a distinct saving for those who come. These prices are no higher than those which prevailed a few years ago for the same kind of goods. Why complain of the high cost of living when you can buy SIRLOIN STEAK for 17½¢ a pound, a HIND-QUARTER OF LAMB for 21½¢ a pound, a ROAST OF BEEF for 14½¢ a pound, a ROAST OF VEAL for 14½¢ a pound, PICNIC HAMS for 19½¢ a pound, or a good BREAKFAST BACON such as our GOLD NUGGET STRIP BACON for 33¢ a pound: The high price of Pork, of course, is due to the steadily increasing cost of corn and grains, but we are offering LEGS OF PORK for 22½¢ a pound. All of the above prices will be in effect at this market tomorrow. Come. Remember, MEAT is man's most nourishing food.

INDICTMENTS DUE IN CHINESE RING

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—The first definite action taken today in the affairs of Angel Island immigration station resulting from the present investigation by Assistant Attorney General John Densmore of the department of labor was the holding by United States Commissioner Francis Krull of Hon Yen Wing under bonds of $20,000.

Wing was arrested in Chinatown last night. The present investigation, which dates from March 21, was the cause of summary dismissal from the immigration service of thirteen employees, the disbandment from practice in immigration matters of the law firm of Stidger & Keenah, and the ultimate disbarment of at least two other attorneys for corrupt practices.

All of these and others, it is rumored, will be indicted at a special session of the federal grand jury next week, probably Wednesday.

The men will be charged with violations of certain sections of the United States immigration laws which make it a felony to alter or assist in immigration matters of the law.

The activities of the alleged ring which have been active on the coast for some time are rumored to have netted those involved at least $100,000 a year for a great many years. Densmore's investigation has made it necessary to examine every record on the island for the past twenty years in the search for substituted photographs on "Section Six certificates" of the Chinese exclusion law and "faked" testimony in cases where it is alleged men were legally in the country.

"You can't catch me unless you dance," said Chipmunk's brother. "After you dance I'll let you catch me. I want to see you dance first." So the Giant danced.

'CANT MUG ME FOR $10,000,000,' SAYS SUNDAY

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 7.—

"Watch the smoke when 'Rody,' the musical psychologist, gets here," said Billy Sunday today, who declared he was out to deliver a knockout blow to saloons in Los Angeles, and the only thing missing to round out the complete success of his meetings here was Choral Leader Homer A. Rodehaver's "tuning up" of the huge crowd at the tabernacle.

Rodehaver is en route from New York from organizing singing classes in army cantonments.

"The whisky gang's talk that I came to Los Angeles on a $100,000 guarantee is a malicious lie," said Sunday last night. "Why, I'm not out to earn money. I was offered $1000 a day to speak from the Chautauqua platform and the movies offered me $500,000 to film my mug, but I won't commercialize religion, and they can't mug me for $10,000,000."

FIGHTS TO DIE

Charley Plesso, a former prize fighter, and until lately a teamster, put up a hard battle yesterday to end his life. After he had jumped into Lake Merritt at the Twentieth and Harrison-streets boatlanding, he fought off would-be rescuers until hauled from the water and carried, dripping and fighting, to the emergency hospital. He refused to tell why he wanted to die.

Emergency treatment and advice were administered. He will recover. The police have not decided whether to hold him or not and are seeking his promise that he will not attempt suicide again. Plesso was recently discharged from the Wooland unit of the National Guard.

FOR NEW U. C. BAND

BERKELEY, Sept. 7.—Assurance of a University of California band, a new institution on the campus, was manifest this morning at a students' meeting in the following way. More than 200 called especially for the purpose of organizing the band and nearly a hundred students, who play some band instrument, appeared. The new aggregation will not be a student body organization.

TO AID SUNDAY ON 'DEVIL DRIVE'

Plans for a rousing excursion to lend moral support to Billy Sunday in his efforts to whip the devil out of Los Angeles were laid at a luncheon at the Colonial cafeteria today, at which numerous pastors and members of the Billy Sunday committee were present. Rev. William Keeney, Townsman of the First Baptist Church, president of C. R. Fisher, secretary of the California State Sunday School Association was elected secretary.

The plans of the committee call for an excursion to leave Oakland on the night of October 3 and return the following day. More than 200 called to go on the excursion, and according to estimates that number may be materially increased. The following committee has charge of the affair: W. N. Jenkins (chairman), Dr. E. W. Dean, Charles H. J. Truman, C. R. Fisher, F. M. Greenwood and E. C. Lyon.

MARINE DECLINES FEATURE TRADING

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Sharp declines in the marine market featured the trading at the opening of the stock market today. Marine preferred sold at 85 1/2, a decline of 3/4, and the common sold at 10 1/2, a decline of 1/2. Atlantic Gulf West Indies fell 3/4 to 35 1/2.

The weakness in the marines had an unsettling effect on the rest of the market, and losses ranging from fractions to more than two points were sustained.

United States Steel sold off 1/4 at 107 1/2, and Bethlehem Steel "B" sold at 105 1/2, a loss of 3/4. Crucible Steel fell one point to 101 1/2.

General Motors was exceptionally weak, falling three points to 59, and Tobacco Products common showing moderate decline of 1/2.

Copper stocks and railroad shares declined fractionally.

There was a more evenly balanced tone in the market after the severe declines of the first half hour, and vigorous rallies occurred.

There was a broad demand for United States Steel after the stock had sold below 107, and it easily rallied from 105 1/2 to 107 1/2.

General Motors moved up from 54 to 58. The marine values moved up about one point from the low prices, and a number of the railroad stocks attracted attention by their steadiness, a number of them showing moderate gains.

The market closed steady; government bonds unchanged; railway and other bonds heavy.

Early afternoon advance in prices was followed by another reaction in the late dealings. United States Steel fell 1/2, while General Motors dropped over two points to 53 1/2, a new low record for the day.

The marine lines held steady, with the preferred holding at about 85 1/2.

PEOPLE ALL SAVE PAPERS TO AID MERCY WORK

RIVALRY IS KEEN IN BIG PAPER DAY

Rivalry among all factors in the Newspaper Day campaign is becoming intense. And despite the competition, heads of committees are chuckling, knowing that every new competitive element in the campaign of old newspapers, September 15, means that much more money for the Oakland Red Cross and county Anti-Tuberculosis Society. Not only are men and women fighting desperately to win the greater number of automobiles for the canvassing of the city residences, but office buildings in the downtown section are in keen competition, through their numerous tenants, to see who shall collect the largest stack of old journals for the cause.

Children and their elders are working upon the enthusiasm of their next-door neighbors to save a thicker stack of papers than the residents in another street in the neighborhood. Schools have begun to battle for the cause. Not only are the children from various school buildings throughout the city endeavoring to outdo pupils of other schools, but they are in hot competition among themselves for the honor of bringing in the prize stack of papers.

TENANTS SAVE PAPERS.
David E. Brown has been appointed chairman of office buildings and reports that tenants are saving morning and evening papers for the great day's showing. Tenants in the following buildings have signified their intention of working for the cause: Oakland Bank of Savings building, Security Bank building, First National Bank building, First Trust and Savings Bank building, Central Bank building, Union Savings Bank building, Geiger building, Syndicate building, Thayer building, Federal Realty building, Thompson building, Perry building, Commercial building, Physicians' building, Bacon building, Macdonough building, Dairial building, etc.

At noon today 40,000 Oakland homes were notified through sons or daughters of the families that September 15 was Newspaper Day and that the American Red Cross and Anti-Tuberculosis Society needed a great deal of money. The boys and girls not only talked much about the campaign but took home leaflets from their schools.

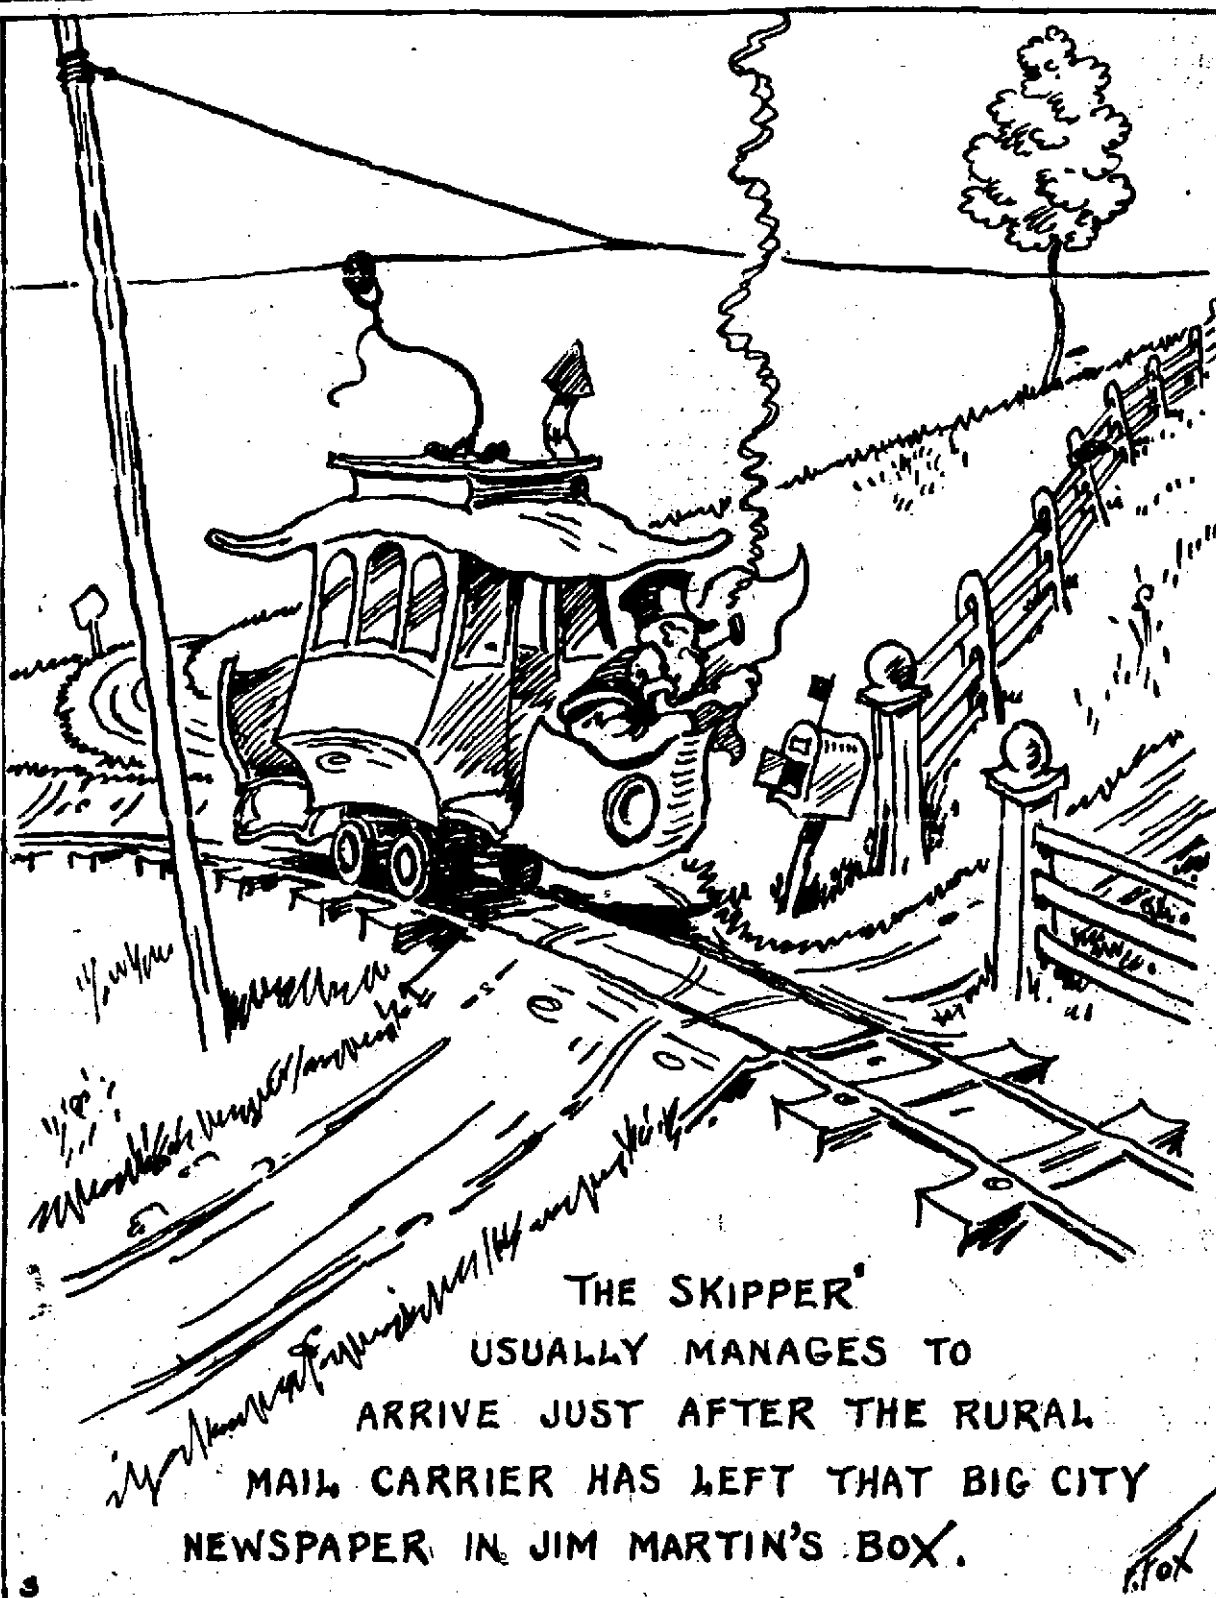

AID PROPAGANDA WORK.
Schools Fred M. Hunter in the propaganda work are: Mrs. Frederick C. Turner, chairman, Miss Edith Bridges, Miss Sarah B. Horton, Mrs. F. M. Hunter, Miss Mrs. Meriam, Miss Margarette Ogden, Miss Marian Ransome, Dr. Aurelia H. Rinehart, Mrs. Edward von Adelung.

Following appeals made by Charles E. Snook and P. Meredith at the Rotary Club luncheon yesterday reports of numerous offers of machines for Newspaper Day are coming to Red Cross and Anti-Tuberculosis headquarters. Snook endeavored to show the necessity for adding every possible dollar to the funds of the two organizations.

He told of relief work which the Red Cross will have to do among families of drafted men; also told of fifty or more men found to be tuberculosis victims upon examination for the national army. These men will require the assistance of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society.

ASKS DAMAGES.
M. M. Cardosa is today suing H. Newman and Ida Kern, of the Peoples' Market, for $1000 costs and $5000 damages which he alleges that he suffered as a result of an alleged wrongful attachment of his property to satisfy a claim for $176. The case is being heard by Judge Koford.

THE TOONERVILLE TROLLEY THAT MEETS ALL TRAINS

CHIEF FINDS BOY NEEDED MENTAL AID

BERKELEY, Sept. 7.—Mrs. Emilie Turner, who was strangled to death a week ago in a lonely cabin in the Berkeley hills by two young boys, would never have met her tragic fate had the criminal court system of this country been sufficient, according to Chief of Police August Vollmer. A psychopathic ward is needed in connection with every criminal court, said Vollmer, who visited Jack Baker, the boy who, according to his own confession to the police, actually strangled the aged woman to death, in his cell in the county jail in Oakland. It was Vollmer's first sight of the youthful criminal.

"There is no doubt," he said following the visit, "that Baker is mentally deficient. In just what way of course I can not say, but it is not feeble mindedness. An expert could locate his trouble with little difficulty."

"This case is a lurid illustration of the need in this country for a psychopathic ward in connection with our criminal court system. Baker, according to statements of his mother and his criminal record has been committed to the state five years ago. If, upon his first arrest, no matter how slight the offense, he had been properly examined by an expert and given proper treatment, either medical or surgical, he would never have committed the murder of Mrs. Turner."

"Such cases of deficiency can be detected without need of allowing the sufferer to continue until some horrible crime has been committed. No end of crimes against society have been committed by deficient cases such as Baker. And all of these crimes could be averted if our criminal courts were properly equipped."

"I shall watch the Baker case with interest, not from a standpoint of curiosity, but as a student of criminology."

With Jack Baker and Jimmie Lee, the two youths accused of the murder of Mrs. Emilie Turner, as the principal witnesses, an inquest will be held on the death of the aged woman by Coroner Grant Miller tonight.

Mrs. Turner was strangled to death on August 30 as she lay in bed asleep at her lonely ranchhouse in the Berkeley hills. The boys were arrested two days later and confessed the crime to inspectors Thomas Gallagher and Joseph Robinson. They said that they hoped to obtain enough money today and then by selling a small herd of cows which the aged woman kept for her support by selling milk. The boys worked on the small patients. The treatments were divided among the various clinics as follows:

Eye, ear, nose and throat, 585; medical, 224; neurological, 139; orthopedic, 137; skin, 82; surgical, 233; gynecological, 95. There were 22 to 1625 treatments administered during the month of August, and 357 new

Pilgrims Gather at Old Mission San Rafael Mecca For Throng

Everything is in readiness for the celebration of the hundredth anniversary of Mission San Rafael Archangel next Sunday, when more than twenty thousand pilgrims from all parts of the state will participate in the big religious and civic celebration.

The programme committee has finally mapped out every detail of the big feast. Alameda county will be well represented in the feast as devotions of the Young Men's institute, the Young Ladies' institute and the Knights of Columbus from Oakland and Fruitvale will turn out in force. A special service has been arranged for over the Richmond ferry and the Oakland delegation will go on this.

Following is the official programme:

1 a. m.—Parade of religious and civic organizations reviewed by the Most Rev. Archbishop Hanna and Governor Stephens.

12 m.—Centenary mass of thanksgiving celebrated in the City Hall plaza by Rev. H. Storf, provincial general of the Franciscans. Sermon by Archbishop Hanna.

1 p. m.—Lunch served by ladies of San Rafael.

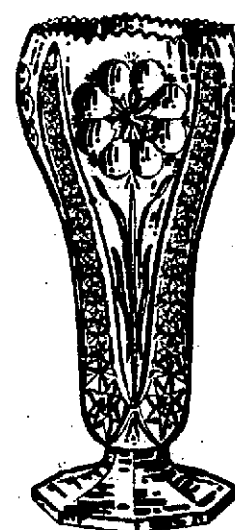

2 p. m.—Baseball game, Young Men's Institute, Division No. 10, vs. the Dominican club of San Francisco. Aquatic sports in the San Rafael baths.

3 p. m.—Civic celebration in Boyd park, Governor Stephens and Peter F. Gilroy, speakers.

3 p. m.—Automobile excursions to points of interest in Marin county.

7 p. m.—Vespers and benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament in the open air. Sermon by the Rev. F. M. Harvey, and Miss Maude Fay, Metropolitan grand opera star, will sing.

FORMER PASTOR'S FUNERAL IS HELD

Funeral services were held today for Rev. Charles A. Wilson, formerly pastor of the Melrose Heights Baptist Church and recently pastor of the Baptist Church in Willits, who died in St. Luke's Hospital, Tuesday. The funeral was held from the undertaking parlors of Suhr and Wieboldts on Valencia street. The remains were cremated.

Rev. Mr. Wilson had been in poor health for a long time and came to Oakland from the Calvary Baptist Church of Richmond in an effort to better his health. He was pastor of the Melrose Heights Church for about a year, resigning last January to go to the Willits church. Before coming to California he was a pastor in Kansas and before that practiced law. He was 55 years old, and was a native of Pennsylvania. Surviving him are his widow, a three-months' child and his mother and two brothers, who live in San Francisco.

ELISE POSEY TO BE BRIDE OF U. C. GRADUATE

In University and social circles today came the formal announcement by cards of the betrothal of Miss Elise Posey, the youngest daughter of Mrs. A. C. Posey of Vernon Heights, and Robert McMurray Hunt of San Francisco. Hunt is the son of Charles F. Hunt, manager of the Campbell-Heath Company, across the bay.

Both Miss Posey and her fiancé are graduates of the University of California, Miss Posey having received her degree with the class of 1917. She is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority and is one of the most popular of the younger girls in east bay circles. Miss Posey is a sister of Miss Cleo Posey. Mrs. Posey, mother of the bride-elect, is the past president of Ebell Club in this city, and during the Exposition year was chairman of the Alameda County Auxiliary of the Woman's Board of the P. F. I. E.

Hunt graduated with the class of 1913 from the State University. He is a member of the Delta Chi Delta fraternity.

No definite plans have been decided upon for the wedding.

WE ARE READY WITH OUR FALL Showing of Suits and Overcoats

Overcoat Completeness

Best describes our stock. We devote an entire floor to the showing of Coats for men and young men. Every fabric—every model in the greatest variety of patterns is shown here—and they are positively the greatest values

You can buy from $15 And Up

FALL STYLES IN Young Men's Suits are prettier than in former seasons, particularly the "BELTERS" and "TRENCH" Models

An unusually strong showing at $15
